NOTED PREACHERS TO FILL PULPITS OF CAMERON SUNDAY

COMMERCIAL GAS SUPPLY FOR CITY PLANNED

CONFERENCE MEETING IS GREAT RELIGIOUS EVENT

MANY THOUSANDS WILL GO TO CHURCHES SUNDAY FOR THE SERVICES.

Sunday will be the outstanding day of the eight-fourth annual convention of the Texas Conference.

Noted preachers from over the conference area will go to the churches of Cameron Sunday and preach to congregations in all parts of the city. Lack of seating room will make it necessary that at least three congregations be preached to aside from the Methodist congregation.

Rev. Ira F. Key, pastor of the Methodist church and Conference host, announces that the following ministers have been tentatively selected to preach Sunday in Cameron: Dr. J. W. Mills of Beaumont; Dr. J. Sam Barcus, Dr. H. W. Knickerbocker, Dr. A. Frank Smith, Dr. Bishop of Houston, W. H. Vance, W. F. Smith, J. C. Martin, Dr. A. Frank Smith and others.

Bishop Moore, presiding at the conference will preach at the Methodist church at the eleven o'clock hour Sunday Morning.

Bishop Hay will be at the conference and is expected to deliver an address at some time during the conference session.

Dr. Winfield of Alexander College is expected to deliver an address at some time during the conference.

Friday a company of children from the Orphans Home at Waco will be at the conference to give an entertainment at three in the afternoon.

The morning sessions of the conference are being taken up with business and the afternoon and evenings are devoted to sermons. The meetings are all open and the people are cordially invited to attend the meetings.

WEATHER REPORT.

Tonight and Friday partly cloudy to cloudy, and unsettled weather. Temperatures ranged this morning from 24 at Amarillo to 64 on the coast. Rains occurred in east portion of Texas.

KNIGHTS PYTHIAS ROLL CALL ON NOVEMBER 26

BIG MEETING OF KNIGHTS PLANNED TO BE HELD HERE MONDAY NIGHT.

Fred Henry, keeper of record and seal for the Knights of Pythias Lodge in Cameron has issued the following call to the membership of the lodge for the Annual roll Call Monday night:

Your attention is also called to Grand Statutes, Chapter XXVII, Section 7 and 8 which provides as follows:

7. The last convention in November of every subordinate lodge in this Domain is hereby set apart and established as "Roll Call Convention."

8. At such "Roll Call Convention" the name of each member shall be called, and, if present, such member shall respond to the call of his name, and if no communication in writing is in the hands of the Keeper of Records and Seal from any absent member, then such member present shall be called upon by the Chancellor Commander to give such information as he may have regarding such absent member. The name of those present shall be entered upon the records of the proceedings of the convention.

Roll Call of Milam Lodge will be on Monday, November 26, 1923. If you are alive we expect you to attend or to hear from you.

HABITS OF CAREFULNESS FOR FIRE PREVENTION

PUPILS OF GRAMMAR SCHOOL DEVOTE THOUGHTS TO FIRE PREVENTION.

Along the line of training children in habits of carefulness, upon which so much emphasis has been placed for the past few weeks in the Grammar Grades, has been added carefulness in handling all things that may reduce the number of fires in the United States.

According to the National Board of Fire Underwriters, each day has an average of more than fifteen hundred fires. Think of it. Each day has fourteen hundred and forty minutes in it and that means that each minute a new fire breaks out. Many of these fires could have been prevented by carefulness.

Misses Wiley, Johnson and Wendt and Mrs. Robbins have been doing much work on fire prevention. Pupils have studied various causes of fire and have written compositions that show that carelessness in the handling of gasoline, kerosene, and matches may instantly lead to much loss of property, and even of life itself. The holiday season, that brings to us the feeling that we are to do just as we please, may result in much sorrow. We may feel free to do as we please about many things but not about fire. Holiday celebrations have left people homeless, children blinded, fingers blown off, faces disfigured and the death list has never been small.

It seems needless to remind people that those things, such as stoves, furnaces, electric lights and other comforts that we enjoy can be the source of much danger. Fires caused by the needless piling up of rubbish, such as old news papers, oily rags and worn out clothing, remind us that we are not good citizens if we allow them to accumulate.

In the days gone by good school teaching embraced merely the imparting of facts contained in the text books, but not every phase of work that tends to make good citizens out of our boys and girls is being taught.

12 EX-CAMERON PASTORS HERE

Seventeen pastors have served the Cameron Methodist church since it became a station in 1885. Of this number, twelve are here this week attending the meeting of Texas Conference; Green, Wooten, Browning, Kilgore, Smith, Talley, Shettles, Wagon, White, Willis, Harbin, and the present pastor, Ira F. Key.

LIONS CLUB ENTERTAINS DR. BOB ADAMS TUESDAY.

Dr. Bob Adams in charge of the new Methodist Hospital just completed in Houston was the speaker of the hour at the Tuesday luncheon of the Lion's Club. The Boy Scout movement was the subject introduced by T. A. Fisher, superintendent of the schools. Dr. Adams made a very splendid impromptu talk on the movement.

Recently he was the speaker at the Methodist Brotherhood meeting in Cameron.

Vernor Fontaine, student in the school here, spoke to the Lions on "Correct English" week.

WILL PREACH AT BAPTIST CHURCH SUNDAY NOV. 25.

DR. J. W. MILLS.

Pastor of the First Methodist church of Beaumont, prominently mentioned as next presiding elder of the Houston district.

Dr. Mills will preach at the Baptist church Sunday.

BACK TO THE GOSPEL IS PLEA OF BISHOP MOORE

MODERN NEEDS DISCUSSED AND HISTORY OF CHURCH GIVEN IN OPENING OF CONFERENCE.

Bishop John M. Moore opened the eighth-fourth session of the Texas Conference at the Methodist church Wednesday morning in a stirring address in which he outlined the history of Methodism and lauded the character of the pioneer preachers and those responsible for the early work of the church.

Bishop Moore, man of great learning and fine personality, struck a note of harmony for the convention and no sharp division is looked for at any time during the conference. His address was both eloquent and broad of comprehension, leading out for the future of Methodism in Texas.

The sincerity of pioneer preachers, their doctrines and convictions were praised by the Bishop. Preachers in those days, the Bishop said, would not measure up to the pulpit requirements of the present day but they preached sermons of conviction. He said they were direct in their sermons and preached repentance and denounced sin and that the crying need of the present day is to get back to the gospel with less of evasion of the real issues of religion.

There is no division among Methodists. The denomination holds no ill will against any religious sect, is for liberty of religion, and a universal love for the souls of lost men. Such was the kind of tribute paid to the denomination by Bishop Moore in sounding the high note of harmony for the conference.

Methodist history is one of great achievement and for which the Bishop said no apologies were to be made for its doctrines or its history.

Four fundamental reasons were laid down by the Bishop as respon-

TWO BOND ELECTIONS IN CAMERON AUTHORIZED

SCHOOLS AND DISPOSAL PLANT BOND ELECTIONS WILL BE HELD DECEMBER 27.

The City Council Tuesday night ordered an election to be held on December 27, 1923 to vote on the proposal to issue bonds in the sum of $150,000 for the schools and $25,000 for the sewage disposal plant.

Roy Baskin has been named judge of the election and the election will be held in the city hall.

The school board presented a petition signed by several hundred citizens and the election was ordered. The money is to be used in constructing school buildings and for the purpose of purchasing sights if necessary.

The state of Texas has required of the city that a disposal plant be constructed. In a wire to the council Tuesday Dr. W. H. Beasley, state health officer, said that the policy of the department will be to ask immediate construction of the plant and that delays will not be favored by the department.

It becomes necessary to carry the disposal plant bonds as well as the school bonds for the schools need new buildings and better equipment.

CORRECT ENGLISH WEEK.

A plea for better English is being made this week, November 18-24, by Yoe High school instructors and students. Posters have been placed in down town show windows and programs directing attention to the use and abuse of the English language have been given in Chapel.

APPOINTMENTS WILL BE READ AT CONFERENCE ON MONDAY NOVEMBER 26.

Assignments of preachers in the Texas Conference will be announced on Monday November 26, the closing day of the conference. A number of changes over the district is expected, among them being the moving of Rev. Ira F. Key from Cameron. This will be regretted by the people of Cameron who recognize the great worth of Rev. Key to the city.

sible for the progress of the church and her present day standing before the world. These are: Spiritual power, positive belief, fervent labor and broadness of sympathy.

Mayor J. B. White in brief address, welcomed the visitors on behalf of the city. Following this A. C. Freeman on behalf of the Board of Stewards spoke for the church and welcomed the visitors. He outlined the history of the church saying that the church here is 76 years old. His address was a cordial expression of the feeling of the church and was applauded by the delegates.

Bishop Moore responding said that the conference was glad to convene where such splendid hospitality is shown and where such progress has been made for Methodism.

D. H. Hotchkiss was elected secretary of the conference and called the roll of delegates at ten o'clock.

CONTRACT IS SIGNED IN MEETING IS CALLED TO PAVING PROGRAM PLANS CONSIDER A GAS PLANT

FIFTY THOUSAND SQUARE YARD LETTING IS SHAPED TO BEGIN WORK.

Contract for the paving was signed at the meeting of the council Tuesday night and work is to begin within about ten days.

W. E. Dozier of Georgetown is the contractor and the cost of the paving will be $83,000. Warrants of the city will be issued by the council to defray cost of the paving.

The council adjourned until Monday November 26 at which time the remainder of the paving award legislation will be enacted and the contract finally closed. Bond in the sum of $41,000 is to be furnished by Mr. Dozier and this bond will be presented to the council on Monday night at a regular meeting.

The council could not, for lack of time, take up and discuss different phases of the paving, principally the request from the commercial club to obtain prices on residence street paving and the permanent fixing of water mains.

It will not be necessary, in the opinion of the council, to issue warrants for more than $50,000 to take care of the costs as the property owners are believed to be willing to pay the entire amount of their assessments and avoid the tax rate increase.

The tax rate levy will be about 21 cents to be graduated downward as the warrants are retired. A short time issue will be made with privilege to retire large installments first.

ROAD TAX ELECTION ORDERED BY THE COURT.

An election to be held on December 17 to increase the road maintenance tax in the county from 4 to 15 cents has been ordered by the Commissioners Court. The election is county wide and the tax money is to be applied to the upkeep of gravel roads in the county.

FRED HENRY MAKES INSURANCE RECORD.

Fred Henry, district agent for the Occidental Life Insurance Company of Dallas, was the first agent in Texas to go over the top with his quota in the $2,000,000 drive in the state and has been given a check for $50 in recognition of his services and the winning of the prize.

ANNUAL LOVE FEAST SUNDAY MORNING AT METHODIST CHURCH.

Rev. Ira F. Key, pastor of the Methodist church, announces that the annual Love Feast of the Texas Conference will be held at the church in the main auditorium beginning at nine o'clock.

This is one of the most inspirational services held at the conference and the capacity of the church is expected to be filled.

CHAIRMAN LESOVSKY CALLS MEETING FOR MONDAY NIGHT NOV. 26.

As Chairman of the Home Industry and Factory Committee from the Cameron Commercial Club, I have been requested to look into the matter of getting for Cameron a gas system and in accordance there with have arranged with Mr. C. W. Arlitt, of Austin, representing a well known and responsible firm, a meeting, at which he wishes to meet with the Commercial Club at this special meeting on next Monday night at 7:30, Nov. 26th, at the Court house and requests that the members of the City Council join in the meeting, together with the Lyons Club as well as all other citizens interested in the matter, at which time Mr. Arlitt will present maps, data and figures, showing cost of installing such a system in Cameron and the estimated rates to charge for the gas service for heating and cooking and will be prepared to answer any question that may be asked; so come prepared to ask questions.

The system that will be proposed is a new one, wherein the gas is made from fuel oil, this being the residue from crude oil, after gasoline and lubricating oils have been taken from it and has been in operation on the Western Coast for a good while but not in use in the East and South, so far.

The system can be owned by private capital or by the town and should be accepted only if it is profitable and this is the purpose of the meeting, to look into the matter and if attractive to look into it further and get immediate action as the mains should be laid in the streets before any considerable paving is done.

The profitable charge for this gas in Cameron is to be between $1.50 to $1.70 per 100 cubic feet; Temple charges $1.65 and Brenham $2.20 both towns having the old system of making gas from coal.

As Mr. Arlitt has been to considerable trouble and expense in getting up the maps and figures and as there is no cost attached to matter so far, it is hoped that all members of the Commercial Club, City Council and other Clubs and citizens interested will give Mr. Arlitt a hearing.

This Committee has had this matter up for a considerable time and wished to bring the matter before the citizens here for adoption or rejection.

Respectfully submitted,

FRANK S. LESOVSKY,

Chairman Home Industry and Factory Committee.

REV. E. S. HUTCHERSON RETURNS FROM ANNUAL CONVENTION BAPTISTS.

Rev. E. S. Hutcherson has returned from a meeting of Texas Baptists at Galveston. It is likely that the Baptist pulpit will be given over to a visiting minister Sunday morning.

Last Sunday the Baptist congregation went to the other churches for services, the pastor being out of town for the day.

HAROLD THOMAS FROM ENGLAND VISITING HIS RELATIVES IN CAMERON.

Harold Thomas of England, cousin of Rush A. and Monta Thomas and nephew of Mrs. Geo. A. Thomas, is in Cameron and will in all probability make this his home in the future.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas arrived in Cameron this week from Beaumont where they have been for several months. He came to America about two years ago. Not until recently, however, did his relatives here know of his presence in the states.

YULETIDE NUT LOAF

Put one and one-half cups of molasses and three-quarters of a cup of brown sugar into a saucepan and boil until the mixture forms a hard ball when tried in cold water, or when it registers 200 degrees by the thermometer. Add a quarter of a cup of butter and continue to boil to 280 degrees or until brittle when tested in cold water. Next add a pinch of baking soda, two cups of stoned and chopped dates, one tablespoonful of lemon extract and one cupful each of blanched almonds, walnut meats, hickory nut meats, one cupful of Brazil nut meats and pecan nut meats broken in small pieces. Pour into a buttered loaf pan and leave in a cool place for 12 hours. Turn out and cut in slices. Wrap the slices in waxed paper. The candy should be stirred all the time it is cooking.

Rub Rheumatism or Sore, Aching Joints

Rheumatism is "pain" only. Not one case in fifty requires internal treatment. Stop drugging. Rub soothing, penetrating "St. Jacobs Oil" right into your sore, stiff, aching joints and muscles, and relief comes instantly. "St. Jacobs Oil" is a harmless rheumatism liniment which never disappears and cannot burn the skin.

Limber up! Quit complaining! Get a small trial bottle of old, honest "St. Jacobs Oil" at any drug store, and in just a moment you'll be free from rheumatic pain, soreness, stiffness and swelling. Don't suffer! Relief awaits you. "St. Jacobs Oil" has relieved millions of rheumatism sufferers in the last half century, and is just as good for sciatica, neuralgia, lumbago, backache, sprains.

EDUCATIONAL WEEK.

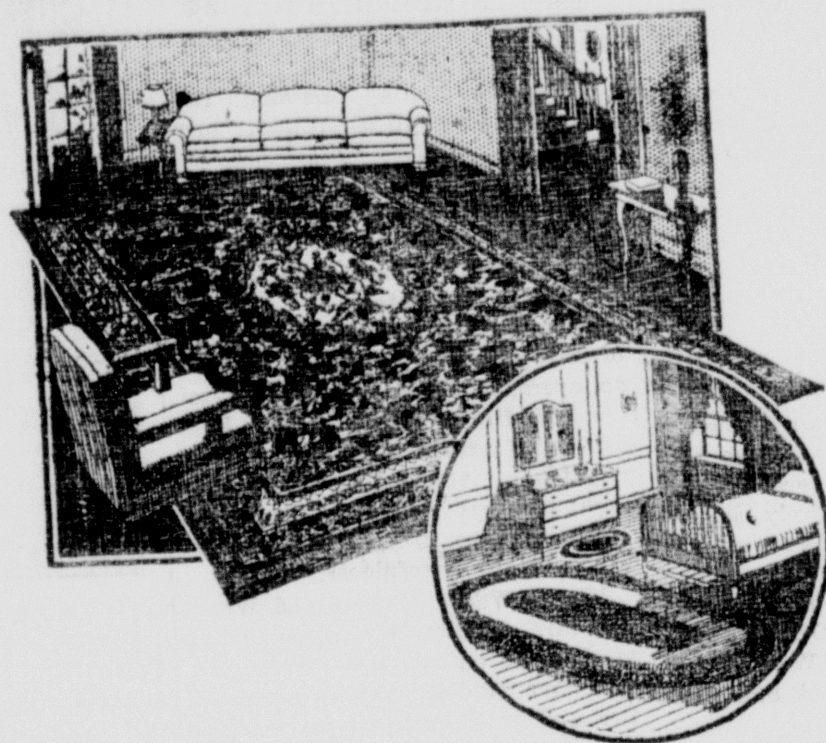

The days intervening from Sunday, November 18, to Saturday November 24, have been decreed "Correct English Week" throughout the entire educational departments of the United States.

of ill-breeding, but also of carelessness.

An effort is being put forth to make such expressions as "I done it," "I seen you," and "I can't hardly," obsolete. Each English instructor in the public schools is making it her business to see that students form the habit of using correct English both in speech and written work. It is of vital importance that this should be accomplished for as every one knows, correct English serves more purposes than just to aid one in social prestige. Correct English is demanded by the business world, and the boy or girl who would succeed in his ambition, must encourage and develop this mode of speaking. Not only is incorrect English a symbol

But unless the schools have the cooperation of the parents in the home, success in this movement can not be hoped for. Since the students spend the majority of their time in the home, and not in school, their habit of speaking tends to be the same as the mode used in the home. This effort for better spoken English will continue throughout the year, and there is much hope entertained for the betterment of spoken English every where. Much improvement will be noted when each person learns his part, and the cooperation of the home and school is obtained.

Christmas-Dawn-Itis

By ETHEL COOK ELIOT

(© 1923, Western Newspaper Union.)

GROUP of children were snuggling home from school the last day of the term. Christmas vacation had at last come. "Do you know," James Tucker exclaimed, "Christmas morning is a funny time! It's loads of fun, of course, the best minute in the whole year. But it's funny, too. You always feel so sort of sick. Now, why should you feel sick just because it's Christmas morning?"

"I know what you mean," a bigger boy agreed. "But it isn't a bad kind of sick. Just an all-gone feeling, sort of shaky and faint. Christmas morning always does that to you."

"Yes, doesn't it, though!" his twin, Betty, cried. "It almost spoils the presents sometimes. Last Christmas I thought, Wouldn't it be a good thing if we could get our presents the day after Christmas, or, even better, the day before? Then we'd feel as we always do other days, jolly and comfortable, and could really appreciate 'em."

"No, I'd rather have my presents on Christmas day when all the other folks are getting theirs," objected another child. "I have that funny feeling, too. It's horrid. But just the same it's being Christmas does make up for it. My kid sister and I call that funny feeling 'Christmas-dawn-itis.' And we're figuring out together that it has something to do with that thing teacher sometimes talks about, the 'law of compensation.' Christmas is so jolly and wonderful you've just got to have something that isn't jolly and wonderful along with it to make up. That's why Christmas-dawn-itis comes along, too."

A thoughtful young man, plodding softly along in the snow behind these children, had no trouble to refrain from smiling at this quaint conversation. Indeed, he thought it rather touching. But he did smile, relievedly, when a little fellow, silent until now, entered in.

"What do you mean?" he asked. "I don't know the feeling. Mummy always comes to our beds in the earliest dawn and makes us every one drink glasses of warm milk, down to the last drop before she lets us see what Santa has left in our stockings. That's the only 'itis' about our Christmas mornings. It's dreadfully hard to take time to drink all that milk with the stockings waiting. But it does make us all warm and comfy, just the same."

ELECTION NOTICE.

THE STATE OF TEXAS.

County of Milam.

Whereas, on the 17th day of November A. D. 1923 Geo. T. Graves and 229 other persons qualified tax paying voters of Milam county, Texas, filed petition with the Commissioners Court of said county asking that an election be held in said county to determine whether or not said court shall have the authority to levy a special tax at a rate not to exceed 15 cents on the one hundred dollar valuation of taxable property in said county, said election to be held under provisions of Chapter 11, Title 119 Revised Statutes of Texas, 1911, and amendments thereto, and

Whereas, on the 17th day of November A. D. 1923, the said Commissioners Court of Milam county, Texas, on consideration of such petition granted and ordered that said election be held on the 17th day of December 1923, which is not less than twenty (20) days nor more than ninety (90) days from the date of said order, to determine whether there shall be levied upon the property within said county subject to taxation a tax of 15 cents on the one hundred dollars valuation of property in said county, said tax, if voted, to be levied and collected for the year 1924 and annually thereafter unless it be discontinued as provided by law, and that notice of said election be given as provided under Article 7043 Revised Statutes of Texas, 1911, and amendments thereto;

Now, Therefore, by virtue of the authority vested in me under such order and the law, I, Jeff T. Kemp, County Judge of Milam County, Texas, do hereby order that on the 17th day of December A. D. 1923, at each of the polling places in the several voting precincts of Milam County, Texas, an election shall be held for the purpose of enabling the qualified tax paying voters of such county to determine whether there shall be levied upon the property within said County subject to taxation a road tax of 15 cents on the one hundred dollar valuation of taxable property in said County.

The polls shall be opened for such election at 8 o'clock A. M. and closed at 7 o'clock P. M., and the regularly appointed election managers are appointed the election officers to hold said election.

Only qualified voters who pay a property tax in the County shall be permitted to vote at such election.

All voters desiring to support the proposition to levy said taxes shall have written or printed on their ballot:

"For the tax."

All those opposed shall have written or printed on their ballots the words: "Against the tax."

The manner of holding said elections shall be governed by the general laws of the State of Texas regulating general elections when not in conflict with the provisions of the Statute hereinabove referred to.

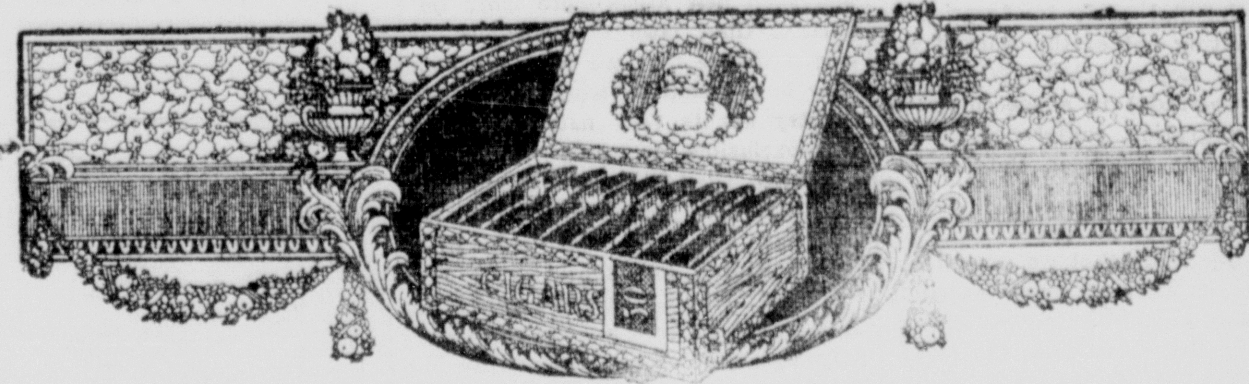

This proclamation shall also serve as a notice required by law.

IMMIGRATION.

A novel presentation of an angle not usually considered in refuting the arguments of those who want the doors open to all immigrants because of sentimental pride in America as "the melting pot of the world," was voiced by Representative William N. Valle (Colorado) in a speech before the immigration conference dinner given by the American Defense Society.

Mr. Valle said in part:

"The argument that we are all immigrants or sons of immigrants," is misleading, because it ignores and directs attention away from the essential point, which is that the American people represent a distinct European stock, having a distinct language and distinct history and that they brought with them, not from Europe generally, but from a small part of Europe, certain definite ideals of life and government which they embodied in a Constitution of their own and with which they have built the happiest country and the most just and liberal Government in the world."

Too many people consider that because America has opened her doors to all the old world, therefore America must continue to do so. While America was in the formative period, and men and women to till the soil, break the trail, blaze the new path, and open new areas were more important than laws or principles, it was desirable that we have an open door to any and all who came. The country by its very nature was its own exclusion law; only the hardy, the brave, the willing and the strong could survive. But America crystallized her ideals as she became a United States, and those ideals are not those of half a hundred nationalities trying to gain a foothold here; they are the Anglo-Saxon ideals, broadened by contact with the New World, refined by the fires of war, glorified by the inspiring lives of a Washington, a Jefferson, a Lincoln, a Grant, a Roosevelt. For the immigrant who is worthy to be, and therefore who desires to be, a good American citizen, this country will always have a welcome. For the alien who sees here merely a chance to make money, to spread radical ideas, or to break laws he does not want to keep at home, we have a quota law and no welcome.

PLEAS FOR EDUCATION IS MADE AT CONFERENCE BY DR. H. H. SHERMAN.

Better educational facilities in the Methodist church schools were urged by Dr. H. H. Sherman from Nashville, Tennessee, traveling in the interest of the Christian Education movement.

One of the things stressed by Dr. Sherman was better educated ministers and the only way to achieve this goal for the Methodist ministry is to provide better standards of education and the requirement of a higher percentage of learning. Appeal for funds to bring up the standard of Methodist schools was made by Dr. Sherman. He said that all pledges to the Education fund should be paid now that the financial condition of the state justifies payment.

GAVEL FROM SILL FAMOUS EARLY METHODIST CHURCH PRESENTED TO CONFERENCE

A gavel made from sill of the famous old McMahan chapel in St. Augustine county, was presented to Bishop John M. Moore at the opening of the conference Wednesday morning by Rev. J. W. Goodwin of Jasper. This ancient chapel is said to have been erected in the early thirties and is located several miles from Jasper.

SANITARY LAWS UNDER RIGID ENFORCEMENT HERE.

Dr. G. C. Sutton, sanitary officer of the city of Cameron, is this week beginning a rigid enforcement of the sanitary laws and in company with a representative for the state of Texas has been doing some very effective work.

Among the laws being enforced are those applying to the handling of food and the manufacture of drinks, milk and meat shops.

DEATH OF MONROE ROBINSON.

Monroe Robinson, former Milam county man and ex-Confederate soldier, died in a Hospital in Beeville, Texas, at an early hour Wednesday morning, November 21. He was born on the same date eighty four or five years ago.

Mr. Robinson was well known in this section. He came to Milam county from North Carolina soon after the Civil War and made his home with the Williamson family near Buckholts. For the past five or six years he has lived with Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Henderson in Kennedy. Mrs. Henderson is the youngest daughter of Mrs. Laura Williamson. The funeral services will be held from the Henderson home in Kennedy Thursday morning. Mrs. Kirby Boles, nee Maud Williamson, left on the Sap Wednesday morning to attend the funeral. His only surviving close relative is a brother who lives in Virginia.

The Lost Letter to Santa Claus

By KATHERINE EDELMAN

(© 1923, Western Newspaper Union.)

THE air was crisp and keen as old Miss Weston came out of her home and walked as swiftly down the street as her seventy years would allow. Every now and then she stopped to pull her heavy fur coat closer around her. Her old blood needs outside warmth in December.

It was just a few days before Christmas and everywhere the Yuletide spirit was in the air—everywhere but in the heart of Miss Weston. To her Christmas was a bore, a day to be over and done with as soon as possible.

The little town of Huntsville knew Miss Weston as a woman who cared for none but herself—who lived her life selfishly and alone—who cared not if her neighbors fared good or ill. Although possessed of plenty of means she had never been known to see another's need—her whole aim and ambition in life seemed to be the comfort and well-being of her own self. It was whispered, however, that it had not always been so with her; that in the long ago she had been a very different woman, and that an unfortunate love affair in the long ago was responsible for her attitude toward life now.

Now, as she walked along this spirit of selfishness was in her heart, so deeply entrenched that not even a mite of the Christmas cheer could gain entrance. But everywhere she went some evidence of Christmas met her gaze, until, thoroughly disgusted, she started homeward before she had half finished her shopping.

The whole business irked her, but somehow in spite of herself she found herself looking back to a Christmas in the long ago—a Christmas when she, too, was under the magic that was everywhere today. But she did not allow these thoughts to stay long; instead she made her mind dwell upon the disillusion and regret that followed so soon after that Christmas, and her face grew more hard and bitter.

She had almost reached her home when a letter lying upon the sidewalk met her gaze. It was directly in her path and she stopped a moment and looked down at it. Her first impulse was to pass on and leave it there—it was none of her affair—then something within her prompted her to stop and pick it up. She read the inscription on its face, written in a childish, straggling hand: "Mister Santa Claus."

For a moment a queer, twisted smile played around the corners of her mouth and the hard, cold look left her eyes. Holding the letter tightly in her hand Miss Weston entered the house, and after taking off her wraps, looked at it again. The thought came to her to take it back and leave it where she had found it, for there was something about it that brought her a queer feeling of unrest and a sort of half-fear.

But in spite of herself she found herself tearing open the finger-marked flap and reading the written words with almost eagerness. It was the plea of a little boy to Santa Claus, not alone that he would bring a toy to himself and his baby sister, but that he would bring some nice things to eat for a sick daddy, and some clothes and things for a mother who bought little for herself. The letter was signed "Paul Hammond, age eight years."

Miss Weston sat a long time after she finished reading the letter. It had been a long time since anything had stirred her like this childish letter had done—there was something in the appeal, coming as it did so soon after the disturbing thoughts of the afternoon that seemed to be turning the world that she had been living in so long, upside down. Emotions which she had thought were long dead within her began to surge through her being—the selfish path that she had mapped out in the coming years seemed to be losing its appeal. Was it possible that she, who had steeled her heart through all the years, was going to fall before the letter of some silly child?

All through the afternoon hours she sat, fighting a battle between her own real self and the things that had held her in their clutches so long, until, just as the winter dusk was falling, the barriers that held her heart so long were broken down and the blessed rains of love and faith and trust in mankind flowed abundantly over her parched and barren soul. Martha Weston had won the fight—the letter of a child, breathing faith in its every word, had brought back to her again all the warmth of love and the joy of giving that had been hers in the long ago, and the Christmas spirit came and fell upon her like a benediction.

HENRY F. HAMLIN.

Henry F. Hamlin, well known in the San Gabriel community where he lived for a number of years, was buried in the Hamlin Cemetery near San Gabriel Monday afternoon. Mr. Hamlin moved to Arkansas two or three years ago. He died in a Dallas Sanitarium.

PRESBYTERIAN AUXILIARY.

Mrs. Ernest Eggert entertained Circle No. 1 of the Presbyterian Auxiliary Monday afternoon. The ladies brought their own work and spent the hour in pleasant social conversation. A free will offering was made to the building fund. The Circle No. 3, met with Mrs. Jeff Avera and tacked a comfort. Circle No. 2, had no meeting.

BISHOP MOORE LEADER SOUTHERN METHODISM

NOTED MINISTER AND SCHOLAR
LEADING CONFERENCE DELIBERATIONS.

BISHOP JOHN M. MOORE.

The presiding bishop of the Texas Methodist conference, Bishop John M. Moore, who makes Dallas his episcopal headquarters, has been for many years one of the most prominent and influential of the leaders in Southern Methodism. Since he was a young man he has filled important offices.

He is especially well known in Texas, since he has served two of the State's greatest churches as pastor, Travis Park church at San Antonio, and the First Methodist church of Dallas. He began his ministry on a little circuit in Falls county, Texas, about 35 years ago. Other churches he has served as pastor are Marvin Memorial and St. John's in St. Louis at two different periods.

He was managing editor of the Nashville Christian Advocate, the general organ of South Methodism for three years, and for a number of years was secretary of the general home mission board. He has been a member of numerous general conferences and has served on many important commissions. He was elected a bishop by the general conference in 1918, and during his first quadrennium presided over the mission field of Brazil. He was assigned to the Texas conference a year ago, this being his second session of this conference.

Bishop Moore is frequently referred to as the "scholar of the college of bishops." He won the A. B. degree at Lebanon college; the Ph. D. degree at Yale and completed post-graduate courses at Leipzig and Heidelberg. Central college conferred upon him the honorary degree of doctor of divinity.

Christmas Gift for Mother

IT NEVER comes to Christmas, but I think about the times
We used to save our pennies and our nickels and our dimes;
And we bunched them all together;
Even a little baby brother
Put in something for the present that we always gave to mother.

We began to talk about it very early in December,
'Twas a very serious matter to us children,
I remember,
And we used to whisper nightly our suggestions to each other,
For by such a cheap and tawdry
could we show our love for mother.

Here must be a gift of beauty, fit to symbolize her ways;
It must represent the sweetness and the love that marked her days.
It must be the best our money, all combined, had power to buy,
And be something that she longed for;
nothing else would satisfy.

Then it mattered not the token, once the purchase had been made,
It was smuggled home and hidden and with other treasures laid.
And we placed our present proudly in her lap on Christmas Day,
And we smothered her with kisses and we laughed her tears away.

It never comes to Christmas, but I think about the times
We used to save our pennies and our nickels and our dimes,
And the only folks I covet are the sisters and the brothers
Who still have the precious privilege of buying for their mothers.

MOLASSES CRISP

Use one cupful of white sugar, one cupful of brown sugar, one-quarter cupful molasses, one-half cupful water, two tablespoonfuls butter, two cupfuls puffed rice and one teaspoonful vanilla. Bring the sugar, water and molasses to a boil. Add the butter and cook until the mixture forms a very hard ball when tested in cold water. Add the vanilla and pour over the rice. Pour into a buttered pan.

ONE JOB ONLY ON CHRISTMAS

In olden times, and indeed today in many parts of the Old Country, it was and is considered unlucky to leave a job unfinished at Christmas. No matter the kind of work a heroic effort was made to have it done before the festivities commenced. No piece of work was begun near the end of the year that could not be finished in time. It was a tradition closely adhered to by Scotch blacksmiths that none of their craft would do a job on Christmas day. To this rule there was one exception. If anything went wrong with the meal-mill the apron was donned and the defect attended to. The welfare of a whole district might have depended on this job being done in time. In some districts, notably Forfarshire, the servant was absolutely free from his master during the whole of Christmas day, and went about the country visiting his friends and acquaintances.

THEREFORE, BE IT ORDERED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF CAMERON, TEXAS, that an election be held on the 27th day of December 1923, at which election the following proposition shall be submitted:

"Shall the City Council of the City of Cameron, Texas, be authorized to issue the bonds of the City of Cameron in the sum of Twenty-five Thousand Dollars, ($25,000.00) payable serially in twenty-five years (25) from the date thereof, bearing 5 1-2 per cent interest per annum, payable semi-annually, and to levy a tax sufficient to pay the interest on said bonds and create a sinking fund sufficient to redeem them at maturity, for the purpose of constructing and equipping a sewerage disposal plant for said City and if there shall be annually levied and collected on all of the taxable property in said City for the current year and annually thereafter while said bonds or any of them are outstanding a tax sufficient to pay the current interest on said bonds, to provide a sinking fund sufficient to pay the principal at maturity."

The said election shall be held at the City Hall in the City of Cameron, Texas, and the following named person is hereby appointed manager of said election: Roy Baskin, and he shall select two judges and two clerks to assist him in holding said election.

The said election shall be held under the provisions of Chapter 9 Acts of the 37th Legislature of Texas, Regular Session 1921, and the Constitution and laws of the State of Texas, and only qualified voters who are property tax payers of said City shall be allowed to vote.

All voters who favor the proposition to issue the bonds shall have written or printed upon their ballot the words:

"For the Issuance of Bonds."

All those opposed shall have written or printed upon their ballots the words:

"Against the Issuance of Bonds."

The manner of holding said election shall be governed by the laws of the State regulating general elections.

A copy of this order signed by the Mayor of the City of Cameron, attested by the City Secretary of said City shall serve as a proper notice of said election, and the Mayor is authorized and directed to cause said notices of election to be posted up at three public places in said City of Cameron, one of which shall be at the City Hall of said City of Cameron, Texas, for at least thirty (30) days prior to the date of said election, and shall cause a copy of said notice of election to be published in a newspaper published in said City of Cameron once each week prior to the date of said election, the date of first publication being not less than thirty (30) days prior to the date of election.

A "REGULAR" CAR

Weaklings have no place in the present day scheme of things.

This is a world of "he men" and progressive women.

Any product to obtain the approval of wise buyers must have merit—and lots of it.

The Gray Car has been called by motor-wise people—A "Regular" Car—and no higher praise is necessary from those who know.

It has appearance, lines, finish, fittings, accessories, comfort, speed, economy, and complete efficiency. That's why Gray orders have been several times the production in the first year of its success.

DR. C. T. TALLEY.

Presiding elder of the Marlin district, associate host of the conference, and assistant secretary.

The Presiding Elder

Rev. Chas. T. Talley, presiding elder of the Marlin District in which Cameron is one of the choice appointments, will complete his four years' work, years fraught with much advancement in the Lord's domain, and pass to other duties in the kingdom. Chas. T. Talley is a product of Arkansas and he admits it. He was licensed to preach by the late Rev. I. W. Clark, at Celeste, Texas, 28 years ago and was ordained elder by Bishop E. E. Hoss, and served Garland and Lone Oak. Later he was transferred to the Texas Conference and served Cameron, Pittsburg, Jacksonville, Bryan, Marshall. His next appointment was University Church, Austin, in the West Texas Conference. From Austin he was appointed Commissioner of Education for Southwestern University. The retiring elder modestly admits having some book "larnin'" as the following brief summary of his "school days" will show:

He entered preparatory school at Honey Grove, at 21 years of age in school. Attended the Smith Preparatory school one year, 11 months at about the 4th or 5th grade of public East Texas Normal College under special care of Prof. J. A. Thomas. Entered Southwestern University in September, 1899, graduated in 1902 with B. A. degree. At school, won Intercollegiate Debate over Baylor University; Editor-in-chief of the Southwestern University Magazine. Entered Vanderbilt University in September, 1902, graduating with B. D., 1905. At Vanderbilt, won Intercollegiate Debate and represented Vanderbilt in the Southern Oratorical Association, winning second place. Received the M. A. degree at Southwestern University Georgetown, in 1906.

Some one has said, "the best recompense for service is increased ability to render more service." I don't know just what you would call the above, whether an axiom or what, but it seems to have been a prominent trait in the make-up of the elder, as on his every work he has plainly known an "increased ability to render more service." His ministry beginning at Garland and all along the way to the Marlin District and through the four years shows a constructive one as is proved by the following distinctive points:

He paid debt of long standing at Garland and Bishop Hoss dedicated church. Paid debt and big ingathering of members at Jacksonville. Developed the work among Italians and Mexicans at Bryan. Paid off old long standing debt at First Church Marshall. Paid the debt and dedicated University Methodist Church at Austin. Placed over fifty thousand dollars on Centenary. Had many additions. Was appointed presiding elder by Bishop Ainsworth at Tyler, Texas, 1919 and winding up four years of hard work. Many material improvements; 5 new churches completed and 2 new ones under construction. Salaries of pastors increased about 25 per cent as a whole. Sunday Schools, Epworth Leagues, Missionary Societies, all better organized. Financial methods and systems greatly improved.

Bro. Talley was an alternate to the General Conference at Atlanta, Ga., and served the last week of the conference. He was honored by his conference which elected him a delegate to the last General Conference at Hot Springs, Ark. In addition to his arduous duties as presiding elder, he is a member of the Executive Committee International Religious Association and a member of the General Sunday School Board of our Church. Bro. Talley's going from the Marlin District is not without feeling of deep regrets by all his preachers and the laymen who have been in close touch with him.

DR. PAUL B. KERN IN OPENING SERMON HERE FOR TEXAS CONFERENCE.

Tuesday night at the Methodist church Dr. Paul B. Kern, dean of theology in the Southern Methodist University at Dallas, preached the opening sermon of the conference now in session in Cameron.

The congregation hearing Dr. Kern taxed the capacity of the new $100,000 church building.

The subject of Dr. Kern's address developed a discussion of present day civilization and the question of whether it is really Christian. This was answered by relating to some of the products of the age as literature, business and social relationships.

He scored the effort of modern literary men, especially writers of fiction for discarding the fundamentals of civilization and tending to an alarming degree of freedom of living.

H. G. Welles in his outline of history, Dr. Kern said in leaving out the divine elements presents the best possible modern day literary tendencies.

The divorce evil was scored by the speaker and the modern propaganda for abolishing the institution of marriage. Sounding a warning he said present tendencies were to explain away these evils rather than an effort to curb them.

Rev. Terry W. Wilson of Houston, well known here led the song service and Rev. C. T. Talley, presiding elder of the Marlin district presided.

EXAMINING COMMITTEE AWARDS CERTIFICATES.

The committee of examination for the undergraduate preachers of the second year met at the Methodist church Tuesday afternoon for the purpose of examining certificates given out by the schools of theology. Certificates were received by about a dozen preachers from the correspondent schools or from the schools of theology at Southern Methodist University, Dallas, and Southwestern University at Georgetown.

These certificates were presented to the committee and found to be satisfactory by Revs. E. G. Cook, chairman; other members of the committee were W. F. Bryan of Tyler and W. T. Renfro of Marshall.

Rev. N. P. Willis, pastor of the Bryan church, and Hal Hitchcock, a druggist at Caldwell, a lay delegate, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hefley for conference week.

MISSION WORKER FOR METHODISTS SPEAK HERE

PLIGHT OF EUROPE PICTURED BY NOTED EVANGELIST.

The congregation that listened to Dr. Luther Bridgers last night in his presentation of the stricken and suffering conditions in the devastated regions of Russia, Poland, Bohemia and Czechoslovakia, was held in perfect awe at the eloquence of his speech and his sensational appeal. That this lecture was one of the best ever delivered to a conference gathering was evidenced by the continuous applause. Dr. Bridgers got next to the hearts of his listeners, so plain and forceful was the presentation of his interesting subject.

In words that were perfectly fitting to his subject he put the actual picture of the horrible plight of those people before the audience, and followed by naming the only source of relief or consolation to be had over there—that of American workers in the fields there.

"This," he said, "is doing more for the stricken people of these countries than all other national forces but even this work was in sore need of reviving. The work done by American missionaries has been almost the entire salvation of Poland and Czechoslovakia."

Dr. Bridgers compared the fortune of the Americans who know not what it is to want for anything, to that of those people, who for years have known nothing but misery and suffering. He made an urgent call for people to stop and think, and see what the small pledges to the Centenary Movement meant to the distressed.

The mission of Dr. Bridgers, while here in America, is to put forth all his efforts to revive the spirit which has recently begun to waver, and make the Centenary Move a big success.

His talk last night was the anniversary service for the conference board of missions at which Reverend W. H. Vance, president of the board presided. Dr. A. J. Weeks of Nashville, Tennessee, and Reverend J. E. Crawford are also members of the board. Dr. Weeks will conduct the service tonight.

Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Green are entertaining Bishop John M. Moore of the Texas Conference. Dr. Kilgore, also of Dallas, a former Cameron pastor, is another guest.

HOME FOR THE AGED SPONSORED AT MEETING.

Rev. A. T. Wilson, representing the Texas Christian Advocate is in Cameron to attend the 84th annual conference of the Texas Conference. Last week the Texas Christian Advocate developed several pages to a write up of Cameron and the conference.

Rev. Wilson has been with the paper for a number of years and is one of the best known Methodists in the state.

While here he will sponsor the C. C. Young Memorial Home for aged to be built in the city of Dallas. The ground is expected to be broken in the near future on a $200,000 unit of the proposed home. Rev. Wilson will lead the endeavor for this home while at the conference.

Yoe High Athletics

(By WILTZ McCOWN.)

BELTON TRIUMPHS OVER YOEMEN 43 TO 0.

Outweighing the Yoemen nearly 10 pounds to the man the Belton Tigers defeated the Yoemen 43 to 0. Although game to the last and fighting every inch of the way, the Yoemen were completely outplayed and outclassed. An ordinary dozen of six foot Texans would look like midgets along side the Beltonites. "Babe" Hallmark, the flashy Belton Captain was perhaps the star of the contest, while Willard Reese, Yoemen tackle followed a close second. Reese deserved much credit for his wonderful showing against an opponent who outweighed him over 10 pounds. One Belton gridster weighed over 220 pounds and Tubby Flinn looked like a baby beside him. Sutherland, Belton's left half was also a consistent ground gainer for his squad while Higgenbotham, Belton's full back was very good. The Yoemen showed up exceptionally well on passes, as nearly every pass was completed for a long gain. With Young and Hardin passing the oval. The Yoemen should prove to be a very strong passing team next Friday, the Yoemen meet the strong Taylor aggregation, and this should prove a good game. Taylor defeated the Rockdale Tigers 20 to 3, while the Yoemen defeated the Rockdale team 53 to 0. Although favored to win the Yoemen are not overconfident, and are going to put everything into the game and fight. With young at full, Childress and Hardin at halves and Captain Hefley at quarter, the Yoemen will present a fast strong backfield. Everyone be out and root for the Yoemen, for they are going to stage a comeback. Those Belton birds certainly do grow big. I don't think they had a man on the line who weighed less than 180 pounds.

Coach Drake and his Taylor squad will journey to Cameron Friday to try to repeat their success of last year. The Taylor squad of last year defeated the Yoemen 19 to 0 and the Yoemen are out to seek revenge.

The Rockdale Reporter contained an article, in last weeks paper, which said good sportsmanship was displayed on both sides. Although the Rockdale fans displayed some very poor sportsmanship when during halves, they beat an innocent negro up, whom they claim was getting the signals. The negro didn't know any more about foot ball than Julius Caesar did, and it was merely an act of very poor sportsmanship, when they beat the innocent negro up.

Danna X. Bible probably has lost his rabbits foot, for Rice defeated the Aggies 7 to 6 last Saturday. The Aggies were doped to win by 3 or 4 touchdowns, but along came some one and upset the dope bucket.

Benny Owens, University of Okla., football squad was decisively defeated by the Longhorns last Saturday, 26 to 14.

Granger defeated the Austin Hi pennant contenders 7 to 6 last week and eliminated them from the running. Austin is now trying to get some of the Granger stars declared ineligible.

Doc Stewarts little grey hat, becomes smaller and smaller as Thanksgiving approaches. Better watch out Brother Stewart for Bible will have his tricks with him.

Although favored to win over Baylor, the S. M. U. Mustangs are taking no chances and preparing in every way for the Turkey Day clash.

The Yoemen close the season next Wednesday, with a game with Georgetown High. The Yoemen are favored to win, although the Georgetown gridsters are preparing in every way to try to defeat the Yoemen.

Yoemen per cent at present:
Played 9; won 5; lost 4; per cent 55.6.

The Yoemen are favored to win the next two games against Taylor and Georgetown and if so the per cent will be 63.7, a fairly good percentage.

There is a possibility that the Seniors will play the rest of school after Thanksgiving, and this would be some contest believe me.

Don't forget to be out next Friday and support a winning team for the Yoemen are trying hard to win the next two games.

"Unk" Young also played a whale of a game at Belton Friday. Once Young skirted the Belton end for a long gain and would have made it if he had not been injured.

Predictions for Thanksgiving Day games:

S. M. U. 14, Baylor 0.

WITNESSES REFUSE TO GO BEFORE GRAND JURY

ATTACHMENTS ISSUED AND GRAND JURY TAKES RECESS UNTIL THEY ARE PRODUCED.

Witnesses summoned in certain cases to appear before the grand jury at its session for the November term have refused to appear before the body and attachments have been issued and they will be brought in to testify.

So far this is the first instance in recent years where witnesses have failed to appear before the grand jury for testimony. The witnesses are subject to heavy fine and are held in contempt of court.

For the first time in recent years an indictment for manslaughter has been returned by a grand jury. In this case an indictment for this charge has been returned against Lola Banks, negro for killing her husband, Ed. Banks in Cameron. The following report is issued by District Clerk Penn Wolf:

On Friday, 16th day of November, 1923, the Grand Jury came into open court, and through their Foreman, presented seven indictments, all of the grade of Felonies and ask the court that they be allowed to recess until Monday, Nov. 26th, which request was granted.

A great number of witnesses refused to appear before this Grand Jury when they were summoned, causing a great inconvenience and this recess was taken in order that those who failed to appear could be attached and brought before the Grand Jury. Those having been summoned and failed to appear are subject to a heavy fine in failing to do so, also are in contempt of court.

The following cases were presented into court:

Jake Patterson, assault with intent to murder.

Lola Banks, manslaughter.

Jim Davis, transporting intoxicating liquor.

Sid Grant, assault with intent to murder.

Chas. L. Kolb and P. H. Wissinger, transporting intoxicating liquor.

Two cases, one of assault with intent to murder, and one for robbery, the names are withheld on account of defendant's not being under arrest. The case of The State of Texas vs John Ponton charged with transporting intoxicating liquor is now on trial the State being represented by A. J. Lewis, County Attorney, the defendant by E. T. Simmang, of Giddings, Lee county, and Chambers, Wallace & Gillis of Cameron.

The Grand Jury will reconvene Monday, Nov. 26th 1923 and all witnesses who have been summoned to appear before them and who have failed to do so will be subject to a heavy fine and attachment issued for them.

I. C. Bell prominent in the local oil fields, has returned from a business visit in California.

A Community Tree

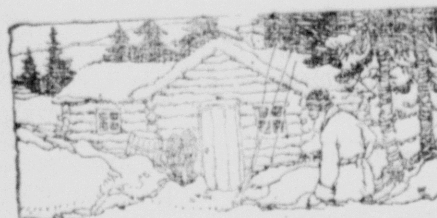

By MARTHA B. THOMAS

(© 1923, Western Newspaper Union.)

Old Solomon Way lived in a shack at the foot of the mountain. He was a queer, solitary man who seldom appeared in the village. Now and then he drove in for supplies; these he bought with as little conversation as possible. No one knew his history, and it is to be feared that few gave a thought to him, beyond idle curiosity which stirred mildly upon these occasional visits of his, and then died before satisfied.

Two days before Christmas there was a meeting at the minister's to discuss arrangements for a community tree. Most of the village was present, particularly the young people. This was their special interest and they contrived to get a great deal of fun out of planning and talking about the tree.

Just as the meeting was called to order, the front doorbell jangled and the minister excused himself to answer it. In a few moments he reappeared, and walking at his side was Old Solomon Way. He was a giant of a fellow, a trifle stooped about the shoulders, but carrying a certain dignity that hushed the chatter of the lively young people. The minister made no comment, but, seating Old Solomon in a comfortable chair, opened the meeting.

The usual discussion followed. Who would go for the tree? Who would set it up in the village green? Who would trim it? Who would arrange the electric bulbs and see about the battery?

Old Solomon listened intently. Perhaps the rest of the people forgot he was there. In any case, there was a little gasp of surprise when the tall, white-haired man arose, and, looking about shyly, said he would like to say a few words. The minister spoke a few courteous sentences to make Old Solomon feel at ease, and then sat down.

"I ain't never been down to one of your meetin's before," began the woodsman, "but I reckoned I couldn't miss this one. I've seen your pretty Christmas trees now for two or three years, and it kinder seemed as though I wanted to say somethin'."

His voice was deep and gentle, with a slow patience that gave it, and the words he said, a sort of weight and richness. The young people listened in puzzled silence, but it was to be noted that not a whisper disturbed the assembly.

"Mebbe you won't like what I got to say," continued Old Solomon, "but I feel like I must speak. I see and know a lot of things, up there in my cabin, that the rest of you don't have time to notice. And I'd feel pretty mean if I did not put in an ear for some friends of mine who can't say a word for themselves."

He paused, looked around the room, and then continued.

"We human bein's are pretty apt to think we're mighty important; we go about takin' for granted that this hull universe was made purpose for us, and everything in it. But when you're alone as much as I be, 'specially cold, windy, winter nights, you can't help thinkin' about all the little critters outdoors. And in the mornin' there are their tracks all about the house. They don't ask nothin' of us. All they want is a chance to hunt for food and some sheltered hole to sleep in. Ah, the birds! Even the pesky sparrows! No matter what the weather is, they're fluttin' around chipper as anything! No complaints, no discouragement, no fuss; and if there's a warm corner or a bit of sunshine, they manage to try a few notes of singin'. They're an everlastin' example to us grumblers. And I was thinkin'—Solomon looked keenly into the faces of his listeners—'If this year we couldn't have a community tree, as you call it, not for ourselves but for the birds, and any small critters that would venture near it."

Not a person answered this appeal; they were too surprised. The minister arose and said the meeting was open to discussion.

Finally a girl in the back of the room popped up and asked how the thing could be managed. Old Solomon was ready with his plans.

"If you'd be willin' to have your tree just a little outside the village, not too far to get to, I think we could fix it. I'll cut and haul down a good Christmas tree, and you young folks come out day before Christmas to trim it. Make it as fancy and pretty as you please. We'll tie on scraps of meat and suet for the birds. And we'll clear a good space around it, and put down boards for crumbs and grain. And a little ways off, we'll have a heap of hay for the deer, and odd bits for rabbits and squirrels and such. This has been a powerful hard winter, with the heavy storms and ice and snow

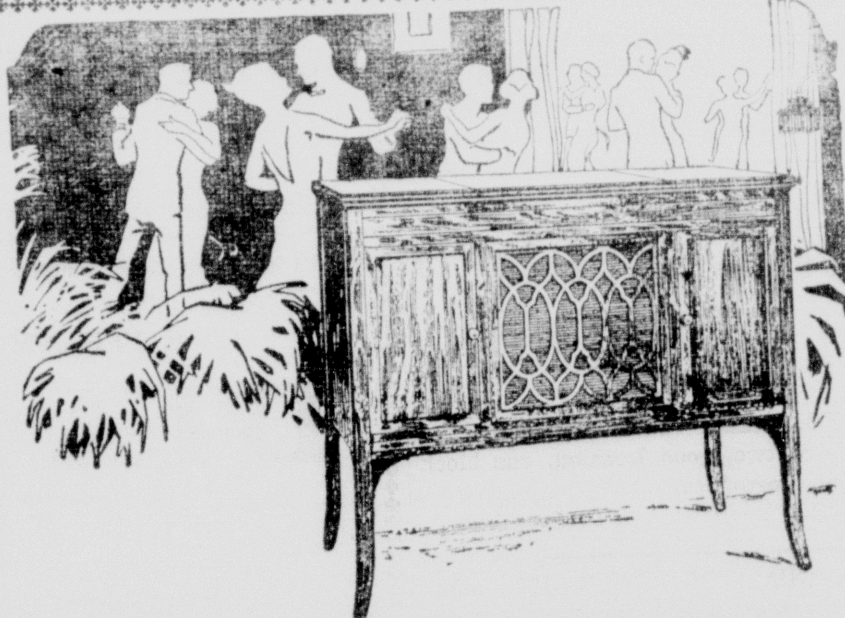

I'll be the first to promise to keep the community tree supplied for one day a week, and I reckon there's young folks enough who'd be willing to take a day until the winter breaks. Seems to me—here his big, rumbling voice lowered to a beautiful depth, "that the Baby who came this day, nearly two thousand year ago, meant for folks to remember their brothers in the woods. I sort of believe He'd like to see us givin' thought to 'em. Who knows? Maybe they're as important in the scheme of things as we are! And Christmas will last beyond one day. I thank you for listenin' to me."

Old Solomon sat down. Immediately there was a quick, light clapping of appreciation.

Christmas day saw the community tree set up in a farmer's pasture. It was gayly trimmed with bright ribbons, popcorn and bits of food. Five boys shoveled away the snow around the base. Hay was brought; boards were laid on the ground for grain and other scraps. Never had the village such fun. When things were all in place, they formed a circle around the tree and sang a carol. Old Solomon sang the loudest. His face beamed with happiness. And if you'll believe it, no less than ten people invited him to dinner that day!

It was a glorious Christmas. And not only did the spirit of love and good cheer fly about that day, but continued for weeks. Every day someone went to the community tree and trimmed it with fresh bits of meat and suet. It grew famous; bird lovers came from miles around to watch the pretty sight; the birds hovered about in flocks. At evening and morning three young deer ventured down for the hay. Rabbits and squirrels appreciated their good fortune. Best of all, the village folk learned the happiness of thought for wild things. And they also learned a deep affection and respect for Old Solomon, who had prompted them to this unselfish service.

SULPHUR SOOTHES UGLY, ITCHING SKIN

The First Application Makes Skin Cool and Comfortable

If you are suffering from eczema or some other torturing, embarrassing skin trouble you may quickly be rid of it by using Mentho-Sulphur, declares a noted skin specialist.

This sulphur preparation, because of its germ destroying properties, seldom fails to quickly subdue itching, even of fiery eczema. The first application makes the skin cool and comfortable. Raw and blotches are healed right up. Rowles Mentho-Sulphur is applied like any pleasant cold cream and is perfectly harmless. You can obtain a small jar from any good druggist.

13,000 BALE INCREASE IN MILAM COTTON CROP

STEADY GAIN IN RECEIPTS SHOWN BY COMPARISON OF FIGURES.

An increase of 12,973 bales in the County cotton crop over the figures shown for the same period last year. The report of Basil McGregor, special agent for the department of Commerce Bureau of Statistics shows that the lead over last year has been increased nearly 3000 bales since the October report.

The following report has been received by the Herald from Mr. McGregor at Milano:

"There were 54,190 bales of cotton, counting round as half bales, ginned in Milam county, for the crop of 1923, prior to November 1st 1923, as compared with 41,217 bales ginned to November 1, 1922."

COMB SAGE TEA INTO GRAY HAIR

Darkens Beautifully and Restores Its Natural Color and Lustre At Once

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use preparation improved by the addition of other ingredients a large bottle, at little cost, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of muss.

While gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant and you appear years younger.

GALVESTON FIRST CHURCH GAINS 753 MEMBERS.

Galveston, Texas, Nov. 18.—Rev. Stephen S. McKenney, pastor of the First Methodist church of Galveston, retiring from the pastorate after four years' service, has made a record of which the church is proud.

When he came to the church four years ago the membership was 840, while today there are approximately 1,593. He has received 450 by certificate and 303 by profession of faith, a total of 753 new members in four years.

The net gain in four years has been 569. Of the members on the roll when Dr. McKenney took charge, 551 are left, so that over one-half the present membership of the congregation have been received by Dr. McKenney during his term here. Among others received were some of the most prominent social and commercial leaders of the city.

The Sunday school average attendance has grown in four years from 223 to 438, and the weekly collection average from $16.97 to $24.92.

The increase in the Sunday school has necessitated procuring extra quarters. At a cost of $10,000, property adjoining the old parsonage was secured for a new parsonage and the old parsonage is being used as a Sunday school and social center building.

Dr. McKenney will report all finances in full and the total this year the largest of the four.

The Bunch of Christmas Orchids

By Mary Graham Bonner

HARRY MANSFIELD was the kind of man who loved to talk to women of the incongruities of their sex. Nothing gave him greater happiness than to talk to a delightful woman, except the added happiness of telling her what was the trouble with women as a whole.

And then he met Betty Bancroft, loveliest of all women, with all woman's imperfections, all her helplessness. Harry loved to call women helpless. There was something particularly charming about Harry, sufficiently so to make Betty answer a ready "yes" to his important question.

They were married and Betty's wedding flowers were orchids—her favorites.

But after a time Harry, with his preconceived ideas of the falling off of romance after matrimony, grew less attentive, less affectionate.

"Don't you love me any more?" she asked one day.

"Of course I love you. Do women have to ask that question every day in the year? I suppose they always have and always will," he ended resignedly.

She thought about it. She supposed women always had asked that question and she supposed they always would. She wondered why it was. Perhaps it was because when a girl was being urged to matrimony she was always being implored for her love and just so soon as it was assured the question of sentiment was left behind.

And then she had an idea! She would visit a friend of hers who had married a naval officer. She would take her friend into her confidence. She would explain that Harry was still the same adorable Harry, that she loved no one else, and yet he was so bound and fettered by ideas rather than facts that he thought marriage must drift; that it couldn't be kept ideal. And she would explain that she wanted to use her maiden name—and that she would not wear a wedding ring.

Splendidly successful was it all! And how amused she was at the men who made love to her, who proposed to her, and who told her just what they thought of "women" anyway—so like her Harry. And yet different from him, for Harry had such charm; Harry was really so fine, so much a person, to love.

Harry was to come out for Christmas. Just how she would arrange everything with the newly acquired suitors when Harry came she did not know. But it would be arranged.

Harry came, and that first evening she told him.

"I just wanted to see," she explained, "if I'd lost all my old power or not," she smiled mischievously at Harry.

"And it was amusing to hear several of them say that they individually were the only ones to make me happy. Just what you used to say, Harry!"

"You haven't let them know you were married! That you were my wife!"

He understood it all finally. Understood what silly old age-worn beliefs he had claimed as his own. And he understood now what Betty meant to him—far, far more than she ever had before.

"I say," he whispered to her when they had finished their talk, late into the night, "can't we go away and have a little honeymoon trip, just by ourselves, for Christmas?"

"I Just Wanted to See."

Betty's heart danced gayly.

"You know, Betty darling," Harry told her as they ate their Christmas dinner all by themselves, "there is really no one in the world who could make you as happy as I can, for I love you more than anyone else could ever love you."

She looked down at the magnificent bunch of orchids which he had given to her. "I felt like a crushed orchid, a faded thing that had once been loved, before," she said. "But now I feel like my Christmas bunch of orchids!"

"And you will always feel that way," Harry said, "for I shall see to it!"

And this time, she knew, real happiness would be ahead, for Harry had discarded the beliefs of others for truths he had discovered himself.

POPCORN DELIGHT

Take two cupfuls sugar, one cupful cream, a pinch of salt, one tablespoonful lemon extract, one cupful chopped popcorn and one-half cupful peanuts. Boil the sugar, salt, cream and butter until it forms a soft ball when tested in cold water. Remove from the fire, add the extract, popcorn and nuts. Stir until it creams and pour into a buttered pan.

CHEEVES-FLINN WEDDING.

One of the most brilliant weddings in the history of Cameron was solemnized at the First Methodist church Thursday evening, November 15, 1923, at 8:30 o'clock, when Miss Irene Cheeves, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Cheeves, became the bride of Fontaine Flinn. The prominence of both families in the church, social and business life of the city made this wedding one of unusual interest to Cameron friends and attracted a large number of out of town guests.

The church decorations were most elaborate and truly beautiful.

A solid back ground of handsome ferns on the altar and an artistic grouping around the chancel rail, was made still more effective by an intermingling of tall cathedral candles in pleasing clusters. Two large floor baskets filled with gorgeous bronze chrysanthemums, placed on either side of the altar, gave the needed touch of color. During the ceremony the electric lights were turned off, leaving the mellow glow of candles to soften the scene.

The pews in the center marked with ribbon ropes and white chrysanthemums, were reserved for the family and close friends. More than a hundred guests many being out of town people, filled these pews.

Miss Helen Flinn, a sister of the groom, Miss Simon Truelove, of Amarillo, a school mate of the bride, and Mrs. Charles W. Peyton of Cleburne, each dressed in navy blue charmeuse and wearing corsages of pink rosebuds, rendered the wedding music. Miss Flinn gave two pipe organ numbers, "Andantino" by Lenore, and "Meditation" by Halevy. Miss Truelove contributed a violin number, "Cavatino" by Roff, and Mrs. Peyton sang "At Dawning" by Cadman.

The two wedding marches, Lohengrin's and Mendelssohn's formed the processional and recessional.

The ushers, Messrs. Glenn Flinn, brother of the groom, Charlie Frank Green, a cousin of the bride, George Childress, and L. J. Epperson of Houston, entered first and took positions back of the chancel. They were followed by the junior bridesmaids, Harriett Flinn, sister of the groom, and Dorothy Denson, four bridesmaids, Misses Imogene Ross of Houston, Elinor Phillips of Rockdale, Lucille Dickard and Juanita Caldwell of Cameron and the Matron of honor, Mrs. Charlie Frank Green, came next. Two little flower girls, Carolyn Cheeves, sister of the bride, and Kathryn McIntosh, and the dainty little ring bearer, Catherine Monroe, preceded the bride and her maid of honor, Miss Reba Cheeves, a sister. The bride and her attendants were handsomely gowned in navy blue charmeuse with bronze trimmings and wore large picture hats with rose velvet streamers caught with bronze rosebuds. The maids and the Matron carried arm bouquets of bronze chrysanthemums tied with two toned tulle. The bride's bouquet was formed of real bride's roses and lilies of the valley.

The groom on the arm of his best man, Eber Flinn, a brother, met the bride at the altar and Rev. Glenn Flinn of Dallas, the groom's uncle, pronounced the beautiful and impressive ring ceremony. The happy couple knelt on a handsome satin pillow to receive the benediction.

After the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Cheeves, on North Travis Avenue, for the bridal party and immediate relatives. Punch was served by Miss Helen Green, a cousin of the bride.

The bride presented her attendants with strands of bronze beads.

The junior maids were presented with silver bracelets. The groom's present to his attendants were leather bill books with names in gold lettering.

Many handsome wedding gifts were on display including two chests of silver, hand painted dinner set, etched glass, hand embroidered lined and three checks of generous denomination.

After the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Flinn started on their wedding journey, traveling by motor and when this is ended they will be at home in Bishop. The bride's going away gown was brown wool with gray accessories.

Both the bride and the groom were reared in Cameron and their courtship had its beginning in high school days. Both are attractive personalities and have many friends who pray a blessing upon their united lives. The bride graduated from Cameron high school and received a degree from Southwestern University last June.

ty last June.

Mr. Flinn is a graduate of A. & M. College and superintends the large farming interests of the Flinn estate in Nueces county.

The out of town guest list included: Mrs. F. D. Stewart and Mrs. Ida Jackson of Durango, Mrs. Pat Cheeves, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Johnson, Miss Mildred Cheeves, Temple, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Green, Mrs. S. W. Shauldies, Rosebud, Mrs. Bonner Perry, Durango, Mrs. Glenn Flinn, Dallas, Mrs. Erskine, Mrs. Fontaine, Temple, Dr. and Mrs. W. J. McKinney, Mrs. J. M. McKinney, Miss Ethel McKinney, Jones Prairie.

MICHALKA-MEEK.

Miss Louise Michalka and Mr. Louis Meek, young people of the Salem community, were married at the Catholic church, Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock, Rev. Simon Spinnewer officiating. After the ceremony, and a luncheon, served to the bridal party, Mr. and Mrs. Meek left on the afternoon train for a short bridal tour.

FOUR YEAR OLD CHILD OF RUSH A. THOMAS IS SERIOUSLY INJURED.

Viola Thomas, 4 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rush A. Thomas of Cameron, was seriously injured at 6 p. m. Wednesday when she fell from the family automobile on the Maysfield road sustaining an injury pronounced concussion of the brain by Dr. D. E. Monroe.

The child opened the door of the sedan at the rear seat and accidentally fell out the door, plunging to the gravel road. She was rushed to the office of Dr. Monroe and there became unconscious.

She was taken to the Scott & White hospital at Temple Thursday morning and is reported to be better and hopes are held out for her recovery.

Texas Methodist Conference In Session Here

Meet In New $100,000 Church

(By H. L. MILLIS)

Elimination of the Navasota and Brenham districts, and the constitution of a new district with Galveston as headquarters; adoption of plans for raising the conference's quota of the $10,000,000 endowment fund for superannuate preachers; action on the report of the committee that has investigated the charges that evolution is taught in some of the church schools of the State, and hearing of reports on the centenary, educational and Houston hospital campaigns, with the climax coming in the reading of the appointments of the pastors for the next year, will be some of the outstanding features of the eighty-fourth annual session of the Texas Methodist conference which convened Wednesday morning, November 21 in Cameron.

The conference will meet in the handsome new $100,000 Methodist church, just completed last March, under the pastorate of Rev. Ira F. Key, and reports from Cameron are that the city is prepared to accord the visiting Methodist hosts a royal welcome. It has been nearly 30 years since the Texas conference met in Cameron, the last meeting there having occurred before the consolidation with the old East Texas conference.

Bishop John M. Moore of Dallas will preside over the sessions, this conference being in the episcopal area under his administration. Bishop Sam R. Hay, in charge of the China Mission conference, with headquarters at Shanghai, who is now in Houston, will be a visitor. He was a member of the Texas conference and pastor of the First Methodist church of Houston when he was elected bishop. It is also expected that Bishop W. F. McMurtry of St. Louis will deliver an address on the superannuate fund and Bishop James E. Dickey, president of the Central Texas conference, has been invited to deliver a series of addresses.

It is also probable that Bishop H. M. DuBose, formerly pastor of the First Methodist church here but now bishop of the California area, will be in attendance.

Besides the bishops a number of prominent leaders in the denomination at large are expected, including Dr. P. W. Horn, president of Southwestern University; Dr. C. C. Sealeman, president of Southern Methodist University, and secretaries of the general boards at Nashville.

All the Methodist pastors of Houston will be in attendance, including Dr. George Waverly Davis, presiding elder; Dr. A. Frank Smith, First church; Dr. C. M. Bishop, St. Paul's; Dr. H. W. Knickerbocker, St. John's; Revs. W. C. Martin, Grace; John E. Green, Denver; Terry Wilson, Bering Memorial; R. A. Gates, Beneke Memorial; E. A. Konken, Larkin Street; G. J. Evans, Washington Avenue; I. E. Thomas, Harrisburg; J. F. Kidd, Central Park; L. L. Lloyd, McAshan Memorial; Jesse Lee, North Side; G. H. Wilson, West End; S. W. Thomas, Woodland; C. E. Clark, city missionary.

The lay delegates from the Houston district are: J. H. Bohmfalk, William Lang, B. L. Palmer, Dr. P. H. Horn, E. A. Berry, Mrs. W. E. Ferguson, Mrs. Monroe Fitzgerald, Mrs. T. J. Montgomery.

Advice reports indicate that this has been a prosperous year and that there will be shown not only a big gain in membership, but in contributions, which will run around $1,500,000.

Of particular interest to Houston Methodists will be the naming of a new presiding elder to succeed Dr. George W. Davis, who has completed his quadrennium, and has been transferred to Dallas. In some respects, this is the most important executive position in the conference, and one of the outstanding men of the body will be appointed.

The rearrangement of the district, it is said, is being made by Bishop Moore in order to strengthen some of the up-State districts, and removing somewhat the discrepancy in wealth and numbers between the Houston and Beaumont districts and those in the rural sections without any large cities. The plan contemplates the doing away with the Brenham and Navasota districts and the creation of a new district, to be called the Galveston district, with headquarters in the Island City.

The new district will embrace Galveston county and take in territory east toward Beaumont and up the Santa Fe on the west probably as far as Brenham. Some of the territory now in the Houston district will be placed in the Galveston district. This district will be compensated by the addition of Navasota and Conroe and adjacent territory, now in the Navasota district.

This will leave only nine instead of 10 districts, and they will be as follows: Houston, Galveston, Beaumont, Marlin, Jacksonville, Marshall, Texarkana, Timpson and Tyler. It will also mean one less presiding elder.

Another matter of interest to Houston will be the decision on whether a field secretary for the Houston Methodist hospital will be named or not. Sam Hay, Jr., son of Bishop Sam R. Hay, has been appointed as resident manager.

The launching of the campaign for the Texas conference's quota of the $10,000,000 fund for the aged and infirm preachers, being raised by the Southern Methodist church, will be a prominent feature of the session. The quota of every church in the denomination is a sum equal to the salary of the pastor for one year. Under this rule, the Texas conference will be called upon to raise about $375,000 for the fund. The churches have five years in which to make the payments.

The conference already makes provision in some degree for its aged and infirm members who sustain the superannuate relation, something like $18,000 having been paid out during the past year for this purpose.

The time for the payment of the pledges for the Centenary of Missions drive has elapsed, and about 50 per cent of the Texas conference quota of $1,300,000 has been paid. This work will be carried on. The drive for the Christian education fund of $33,000,000 is still in progress, the Texas quota being approximately $1,000,000. Dr. Glenn Fliin, conference educational secretary, will make a report on the year's collections.

It is not expected that the controversy over evolution will create much of a stir in the Texas conference, though a committee is due to report on the courses in some of the schools of the State. Methodists pretty generally have kept out of the controversy. Leaders do not look for it to be an issue at this time.

The reading of the appointments of the pastors for next year will be the most interesting feature of the sessions. It is rumored that there will be many changes throughout the conference.

The Texas conference is the mother conference of the Texas Methodist conferences, having been organized in the days of the public by pioneer Methodists missionaries who ventured into the Texas wilderness.

The North Texas, the West Texas, the Northwest Texas, the Central Texas have since been organized as the territory they embrace became peopled.

The present Texas conference, which is a consolidation of the old Texas and the old East Texas conferences, embraces the territory from Texarkana to Tyler on the north and from Orange to Bay City on the south, with the westerly boundary passing through Brenham, Rockdale and Marlin.

In this territory there are 239 pastoral charges, 688 churches, and about 250 traveling preachers. There are 200 local preachers and a lay membership of 86,692, according to the reports made at the conference last year. There are 235 Epworth Leagues with 7620 members. Sunday schools number 524, officers of Sunday schools 5343, and scholars enrolled 66,351.

For foreign missions last year $15,610 was contributed; for home missions, $21,842; for church extension, $8,354; for education, $23,075; for the support of the ministry, $3,517; for bishops, $40,270 for presiding elders, $364,280; for preachers in charge and for conference claimants $17,088.

The grand total of contributions for all purposes by the churches of the conference was $1,238,999.

There are 612 houses of worship under the jurisdiction of the conference, having a value of $3,597,014, with an indebtedness of only $142,663. There are nine district parsonages valued at $66,500 and 224 parsonages belonging to pastoral charges, valued at $662,446. Church property in the conference is insured to the extent of $1,436,000.

Standard Storage Battery

Let Us Prolong Your Battery's Life

Neglect is the greatest foe your battery has. Unless it receives the proper attention at frequent intervals, your battery will not stand up half as long as it should.

The extra water-space provided in its construction, the patented flexible rubber seal, the unit-weld process of joining the plates in each cell into a rigid, extra strong group, render the Standard Battery practically free from most battery ills.

Its construction makes it the ideal battery for the Southwest, where climate and rugged roads are particularly hard on batteries.

Evaporation, heavy drain of the power, vibration and all the other ills your battery is subject to, can be prevented from becoming serious troubles by catching them in time. Drive in at least every two weeks and let us go over your battery. No charge for test, inspection, distilled water.

We measure our success not by the number of new batteries we sell, but by the old batteries we save. Let us do our part with yours.

Cameron Church Makes Big 4 Year Growth

The conference meets this year with one of the most flourishing congregations in the State, and one which has made a record of which any church would be proud.

The sessions will be held in the new First Methodist church at Cameron, a $100,000 edifice, which contains all the modern improvements in church construction, and is rated as one of the finest and best arranged church edifices in the smaller cities of Texas. The building project was carried through under the leadership of the energetic young pastor, Rev. Ira F. Key.

The building enterprise was launched in 1920 and dirt was broken that fall on the foundations. The million dollar compress fire and later the destructive floods forced a delay in the building, but the congregation rallied from these disasters, and in March, 1923, entered the completed building.

In addition a new lot for a parsonage has been bought and $5000 spent on the parsonage. During Rev. Mr. Key's four years at Cameron he has raised $120,000. Other evidences of progress under his ministry are increases of 250 in the church membership and of 100 per cent in the Sunday school attendance.

The board of stewards of the church is composed of the following: T. F. Hardy, P. O. Adams, Jeff T. Kemp, Dr. A. S. Epperson, W. O. Triggs, Walter F. Sharpe, J. C. Tucker, W. H. Triggs, R. S. Boykin, W. M. Cobb, A. J. Triggs, Roy Baskin, C. N. Green, A. C. Freeman, Sam Graham, R. H. McIntosh, R. A. Tag, J. B. Lindsey, A. M. Lankford, B. F. Bonds, F. R. Dunlap, W. A. Bonds, H. Leland Green, R. B. Rylander and T. A. Fisher.

The Woman's Missionary society with 70 members has raised $8,000 for all purposes during the four years.

Rev. Mr. Key has had the fine cooperation of Rev. C. T. Tally, presiding elder of the Marlin district, who is reputed to be one of the finest executives in the conference, as well as a preacher of outstanding ability. He is one of the secretaries of the conference. He is finishing four years on the Marlin district with a great record to his credit.

BISHOP HAY ATTENDING THE TEXAS CONFERENCE.

The visit of Bishop Sam R. Hay, who claims Houston as his home while in America, will be a matter of gratification to the members of the conference. Bishop Hay was a member of this conference when he was elevated to the episcopacy in 1922, and assigned to the episcopal area of China. He spent a large part of his ministry while in the pastorate in the Texas conference, some 13 years, having been spent in Houston as pastor of First and St Paul's churches and as presiding elder.

The bishop came home from Shanghai, China, last spring, and has spent the time since engaged in duties for the church in the homeland. He recently underwent an operation, but is recovering and expects to return to China within a short time. Mrs. Hay, who suffered severely from a fall some time ago, is said to be improving and will return with Bishop Hay to Shanghai as soon as she is able to travel.

GALVESTON FIRST CHURCH GAINS 753 MEMBERS.

Galveston, Texas, Nov. 18.—Rev. Stephen S. McKenney, pastor of the First Methodist church of Galveston, retiring from the pastorate after four years' service, has made a record of which the church is proud.

When he came to the church four years ago the membership was 840, while today there are approximately 1150. He has received 450 by certificate and 303 by profession of faith, a total of 753 new members in four years.

The net gain in four years has been 569. Of the members on the roll when Dr. McKenney took charge, 551 are left, so that over one-half the present membership of the congregation have been received by Dr. McKenney during his term here. Among others received were some of the most prominent social and commercial leaders of the city.

The Sunday school average attendance has grown in four years from 223 to 438, and the weekly collection average from $16.97 to $24.92.

The increase in the Sunday school has necessitated procuring extra quarters. At a cost of $10,000, property adjoining the old parsonage was secured for a new parsonage and the old parsonage is being used as a Sunday school and social center building. Dr. McKenney will report all finances in full and the total this year the largest of the four.

MISS JENNIE TYSON ON T. P. C. PROGRAM.

Miss Jennie Tyson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Tyson, is a student in the Fine Arts Department, Texas Presbyterian College, Milford. From a class of one hundred students, Miss Jennie has been selected as one of two represent the school on the Thanksgiving program. This is quite an honor for Miss Tyson and her Cameron friends are proud of her record.

Author of Prohibition Law at The Conference

Former State Senator Judge W. L. Dean of Huntsville, famed in Texas and over the nation for writing the Dean prohibition law, is among the distinguished delegates to the Texas Methodist Conference now meeting in Cameron.

Senator Dean is a prominent Methodist layman and is a delegate to the conference from the Navasota District.

While in Cameron Senator Dean will be guest in the home of Judge

BISHOP EXPECTED TO CREATE NEW ELDERS.

A number of changes in the presiding elders will come at the session of the conference at Cameron, since four of the present elders have completed their four-years terms on their respective districts.

These are: Rev. W. W. Watts, Beaumont district; Rev. L. J. Power, Jacksonville district; Rev. George W. Davis, Houston district, Rev. C. T. Tally, Marlin district.

It is rumored on good authority there are sufficient candidates willing to sacrifice themselves in the eldership to insure that Bishop Moore will be able to have a complete cabinet next year.

Thanksgiving

THE FAITH OF THE PIONEERS

Just as the founders of this republic kneeling amid the primitive surroundings of the Wild New England Shores, profound in their thanks for the kind providence that gave them opportunity in the then New America, so should we give thanks that in the fullness of the day we have come to inherit the government and the fine ideals of our early American civilization. Profiting by the example of the first Thanksgivers we must ever hold to the spirit of thankfulness and on Thursday November 30, 1923 again renew our fidelity to the faith of the Pilgrims.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK

Dr. George W. Davis is Attending Meeting

(Houston Post.)

An organization that is doing much for Methodism in Houston at the present time, and upon which the future of the church in the city depends in a large measure, is the City Board of Missions and Church Extension, a body comprising all the Southern Methodist churches in the city.

This board is not only contributing to the support of a number of churches now established, but it is charged with the responsibility of locating and assisting to finance new churches in parts of the city where the population is growing, and there is prospect of building new church centers. The plan is to co-ordinate Methodism in Houston and to direct its growth along comprehensive lines.

Dr. George Waverly Davis, the presiding elder, has given the board every encouragement, and its unusual success has been due in no small degree to his co-operation as a member. The officers of the board, all of whom were re-elected for another year last Monday night, have each given enthusiastic service, particularly A. M. Cohen, the financial secretary, upon whom has devolved most of the actual work of handling the finances.

The official board is organized as follows: John T. Scott, president; W. W. Fondren, first vice president; Mrs. L. M. Hogsett, second vice president; J. E. Grady, secretary; A. Dee Simpson, treasurer; A. M. Cohen, financial secretary.

The report for the year now closing shows that nearly $10,000 has been spent locally. Toward the support of pastors, $500 has been given to Central Park church; $600 to Denver church; $200 to Washington avenue and Park Place; $200 to Sunset Heights and Larkin street churches; $37.50 to White Oak; $210 to the district evangelist, Rev. C. E. Clark; $300 to North Side mission.

The following churches have been granted assistance in building programs and debts; Park Place, $400; St. John's, $1,000; West End, $500.

The executive committee has voted to set aside $2,000 for the purpose of lots in Houston Heights Annex and near the Eastwood additions for church sites. The locating board has recommended the purchase of three lots at the corner of West Twentieth and Lowell streets at a cost of $1,360. A site near Eastwood has been selected and will be purchased. Also the project of building a church in the Rice Institute neighborhood will be begun soon with the purchase of lots.

Practically the entire $10,000 goal for 1923 has been pledged and the books will be kept open until December 10 to receive collections. The goal of 1924 is $10,000 as a minimum and it is planned to raise the entire amount on the second Sunday in January. During the coming year it is planned to increase the contribution to the support of ministers.

During the year the board purchased a tent, which was turned over to Rev. C. E. Clark, who conducted a revival and organized the new Houston Heights Annex church with 22 members and 30 others interested. More than 200 Methodist were found in the neighborhood, who are expected to come into the church.

cluded a vocal solo by Miss Eloise Rogers; piano solo by Mrs. Paul Webb and a vocal solo by Mrs. J. L. Clinton all of which were splendidly rendered and enthusiastically encored.

Mr. McBeath was the first speaker, his talk being witty and humorous, at the same time evidencing a deep interest in Lionism.

Judge T. S. Henderson was introduced as the father of two young Lions and he made an entertaining talk on his views of lionism and that it may mean for Cameron.

Col. Perry complimented the club upon the quality of its members and advised them to be careful who they elected to membership.

"No man should be taken in because he is a big man, or a rich man, but because he is willing to work for the up-building of Cameron," said Col. Perry. "If you are not loyal to your city, you are not a good Lion," he said. "If you have a left zen who is a 'knocker' and likes Temple or Waco better than Cameron, try to convert him. If you cannot do that, buy him out and let him go." "Manhood is the only thing worth while." "People have given up the old notion that location and natural resources are what build up cities. The right type of men will build up right here, a Queen City of Texas, a splendid place to live and raise a family." What you want in your Lions Club is men of conviction, so loyal to your city that they are willing to sacrifice their personal ease for the general good."

"Lionism stands for a militant faith in progress," Col. Perry admonished the Lions to purity in politics and righteousness.

Col. Perry is president and founder of West Texas Military College and is making a great success of this school which is doing much for the youth of Texas. Col. Perry presented the Cameron charter.

Lion Tamer Webb and O. M. Smith Tail Twister and Rev. Ira F. Key made entertaining talks.

The charter members of the Cameron Lions Club are: Thos. A. Fisher, Jno. H. Edwards, E. R. Zellner, Dan Tyson, H. M. Hefley, Paul Webb, O. M. Smith, W. O. Triggs, J. W. Coleman, W. S. Lankin, Dr. A. S. Epperson, T. S. Henderson, Jr., W. M. Cobb, G. C. White, Claude Triggs, John Henderson, Robt. McLane, John S. Owens, C. R. Phillips, J. C. Martin, Leslie Green, C. W. Read, H. H. Stedman, H. C. Keith, H. F. Smith, Jr., E. V. Ferguson.

Besides those already mentioned the wives of the married members were present, also J. E. Mangum and wife, Geo. T. Graves and wife, Rev. Ira F. Key and wife, Rev. H. R. McFadyen and wife, Dr. Jas. Watson and wife, S. A. Cottle and wife, Mrs. T. S. Henderson, Sr.

The banquet, served at Bigbee Hotel, was delicious. The tables were attractively decorated with bowls of chrysanthemums and marigolds. The banquet course was fruit salad with whipped cream topped with cherries and wafers; second course, roast turkey with dressing with giblet gravy, cranberry sauce, potato wells with cream peas, smothered tongue with egg dressing served in red pepper cups, pickles, celery, and hot biscuits. Third course, pineapple pie with whipped cream, hot coffee topped with whipped cream. Plate favors were lion heads tied with the Lion Club color, purple and yellow. Guests were received by Mr. and Mrs. John S. Owens, Misses Delphina Scott and Mozelle Bigbee.

Houston Pastors Are Attending Conference

A number of changes are expected to be made in the churches of Houston, so says the Post in printing the following story Monday:

While it is a rule of Methodist bishops not to announce appointments of pastors until the closing session of the annual conference, the report is quite general that Bishop Moore is planning to effect many changes in pastorates in the Texas conference this year. Considerable moving is expected.

Houston will likely see numerous changes in local pastorates, it is said by those close to the church authorities. Several of the Houston pastors are due promotions and will go to larger churches and others are completing their quadrennium. Some are asking for churches in other parts of the State for personal reasons.

The appointment of Dr. George W. Davis, the presiding elder of the Houston district, to Oak Lawn church in Dallas, of course, has been announced, as the North Texas conference has been held, and all assignments made. Dr. Davis had completed his four-year term on the Houston district, and is moving in compliance with the law of the church relating to the itinerancy.

Another minister who has completed four years work here is Rev. S. W. Thomas, who will probably leave Woodland Heights church. He has had a most successful term.

As successors to Dr. Davis various ministers have been mentioned as probable appointees, including Dr. J. Walter Mills, who is completing five years as pastor of the First Church at Beaumont, having served an extra year under the special provision in the law for extending pastorates; Rev. S. S. McKenney, pastor of the First Methodist church at Galveston; Rev. S. W. Thomas, and Dr. C. M. Bishop of St. Paul's.

No changes are expected at the First Methodist church, where Dr. A. Frank Smith is pastor, or at St. Paul's unless Dr. Bishop is made the presiding elder.

SCHOOL NEWS

SENIOR CLASS MEETING.

The Seniors met in a call meeting last Wednesday afternoon for the discussion of whether or not there would be an annual. After a hot debate it was decided that the Seniors of 1923-'24 should do away with the custom of an annual. In place of this annual the Seniors are going to put out a semi-monthly paper which will carry all the happenings of the school.

EDUCATIONAL WEEK.

The days intervening from Sunday, November 18, to Saturday November 24, have been decreed "Correct English Week" throughout the entire educational departments of the United States.

An effort is being put forth to make such expressions as "I done it," "I seen you," and "I can't hardly," obsolete. Each English instructor in the public schools is making it her business to see that students form the habit of using correct English both in speech and written work. It is of vital importance that this should be accomplished for as every one knows, correct English serves more purposes than just to aid one in social prestige. Correct English is demanded by the business world, and the boy or girl who would succeed in his ambition, must encourage and develop this mode of speaking. Not only is incorrect English a symbol of ill-breeding, but also of carelessness.

But unless the schools have the co-operation of the parents in the home, success in this movement can not be hoped for. Since the students spend the majority of their time in the home, and not in school, their habit of speaking tends to be the same as the mode used in the home.

This effort for better spoken English will continue throughout the year, and there is much hope enter-

The Heritage
Of the Years

At no time since the landing of the Pilgrims and that outpouring of thanks from the barren rocks of New England shores, has there been greater cause for thanksgiving than the approaching day Nov. 30.

The nation is at peace and prosperity has come throughout the country since our last National Day of Thanks. This bank is grateful for the many blessings that have come to the American people through the years in which the pioneers wrought that we might inherit the ideals and the privileges of a free government and of liberty.

THORNDALE BRASS BAND REORGANIZED.

At a meeting of about sixteen members of the local brass band, held Thursday night of last week the Thorndale Brass Band was reorganized and new officers elected and a new effort will be made to maintain regular weekly practice meeting which has been neglected during the past few weeks on account of the boys being so busy that they did not feel like attending the meetings.

The rush of farm work being about over, the band will take up the work again and keep in form and maintain the high standard of efficiency characterizing this organization here tofore.

The new officers are:
Herman Winters, President.
Emil Richter, Vice President.
E. C. Hoppe, Secretary.
Oscar Moerbe, Treasurer.
Emil Morebe, Janitor.
J. E. G. Biar, Leader.
E. C. Hoppe, Assistant Leader.

The band will meet for practice each Wednesday night over Davis & Turner's store, Mr. Davis and Mr. Turner having kindly volunteered the use of the balcony in their store for the purpose sometime ago. Let the good work go on.—Thorndale Champion.

MASS MEETING HELD TO DISCUSS ROAD NEEDS.

A mass meeting of citizens was held in the directors' room of the Thorndale State Bank on Wednesday afternoon to discuss the available ways and means of rebuilding and maintaining our public roads, a subject very timely, it seems to the Champion. The consensus of opinion of those present at the meeting seemed to be that whatever effort was made it should contemplate the rebuilding of the roads in the entire territory of this commissioners precinct, and to do this seemed next to impossible with merely a maintenance tax of only 15c on the hundred dollar valuation of taxable property, as has been suggested. At the present time we have only a 4c tax and it was proposed to raise this to 15c by adding 11c to it by an election for that purpose.

After some discussion it was decided to take no definite action until the County Engineer could be invited to meet with us and also give Commissioner Moore time in which to compile some needed data upon which to act as a basis for laying plans for definite action looking to providing better roads in this precinct. This meeting will probably be held during the present week.—Thorndale Champion.

KILL YOUR GRASS OR WEEDS WITH West Texas Weed and Timber Killer

KILLS ALL TREES, SPROUTS AND NOXIOUS PLANTS

It is a concentrated chemical in liquid form, for clearing the farm of all wild onions, garlic, wild rhubarb, Canadian thistle, morning glory, vines, Johnson and Bermuda grass and other noxious weeds. West Texas Timber and Weed Killer is unequalled and excels any imitation on the market. It is a salvation to the farmer whose land is infested with these pests of vegetation.

In permanently destroying dandelion, platan and other pest plants on lawns caution should be used in applying West Texas Timber & Weed Killer, so as not to kill lawn grasses surrounding them. It only requires a few drops applied directly to the center of these plants. We manufacture a specially designed sprayer or dropper, that we recommend to be used in exterminating such plants that affords a protection to the lawn grasses.

Driveways in parks and in cemeteries are kept clean of weeds by spraying with an ordinary sprayer or sprinkler. Weeds on vacant lots can be quickly and economically destroyed by spraying, and is far cheaper and more efficient than mowing.

One application of this liquid is sufficient for the season. Directions on the container.

THE DEMOCRATS WIN.

The pith and essence of the results of the elections of Tuesday, November 6, was admirably expressed by Cordell Hull, Chairman Democratic National Committee, when he said: "Republican hopes that Mr. Coolidge's succession to the Presidency had reversed the popular verdict against their party and their administration, already rendered when he took office."

Chairman Hull stressed the overwhelming victories in Kentucky and Maryland, where state-wide elections were held, and where in Kentucky the Democrats polled the largest majority in forty years and in Maryland where they polled the largest majority since the Civil War. The triumphant election of William J. Fields as Governor of Kentucky and the reelection of Governor Albert C. Ritchie of Maryland, settles all question concerning results from the border states in 1924 and confirms the certainty of a Democratic presidential victory.

The manner in which New York State is districted makes it almost impossible for the Democrats to gain the Assembly in that State, although the Democratic vote Downstate may overwhelm the Republican vote Upstate. The Downstate victory in New York, including Kings County, (Brooklyn,) was as overwhelming as the victories in Kentucky and Maryland.

The Chairman of the Republican National Committee pretended to be elated because his party regained the 24th New York Congressional District where normal Republican majorities range from 6,000 to 7,000, which had been won by the Democrats in 1922, and attempted to offer this as an offset against the unprecedented Democratic victories in Kentucky and Maryland, although the Republicans carried Kentucky in the last gubernatorial election by 40,000 majority and the Democrats now carry it by upwards of 50,000. The recovery of a Republican district by the Republicans, a part of which is in Westchester County, which Harding carried by 48,000 majority, is much more than offset by the recent Congressional victory in the 5th District in Washington where the Democrats carried one of the strongest Republican districts in the State.

When all is said, the Democrats have held all the gains of their great Congressional victory in 1922, when the reactionary Republican National Administration was repudiated with the complete redemption of Kentucky and Maryland from Republican misrule, and the vote everywhere indicating that the second half of the National Republican Administration is regarded as the first half. Many Republican leaders admitted before the chance that defeat was certain for them in the 1924 Presidential campaign under the administration then existing.

TEAPOT DOME LEASE MAY ENDANGER THE NATIONAL DEFENSE.

The first installments of the Teapot Dome Naval Oil Reserve, hearings have been published, and the damaging testimony therein will be thoroughly aired in the coming session of Congress.

Senator Kendrick, (Wyo.) who brought to light the secret lease of this oil reserve, said, "A Government official is not permitted to sell a blind army mule without advertising for bids, yet here Secretary of the Interior, with the concurrence of the President and Secretary of the Navy, has secretly entered into a contract providing for the disposal of Government property worth millions of dollars."

lars."

When ex-Secretary Fall, who made this secret lease, was on the stand he was closely questioned by Senator Walsh, "that the law expressly provides that Government officials must call for bids in entering into contracts for supplies or services, excepting personal services?"

"Well, I consider this a personal service to the Navy," Fall replied.

"You know perfectly well that the exception applies to such services as the employing of Government clerks," said Senator Walsh.

"I think the law also makes exceptions to the efforts of public officials to conserve the country's interests," said Fall, "and I feel that in this case I was acting for the best interest of the Navy."

Under this interpretation a public official might do anything he please with Government property and set up the claim that he was acting in the best interest of the country.

The testimony of Chester W. Washburn, an eminent consulting geologist of New York, brought to light a new phase of the military question involved in this case.

Mr. Washburn said: "Remember that in exchange for its crude oil the Government is getting fuel oil in tanks. It is quite possible that in ten years fuel oil will be obsolete. It appears now that the military need of the next generation will be gasoline for aircraft. Gasoline cannot be stored, because of the high rate of evaporation. Many forms of fuel can be extracted from crude oil but the fuel oil is fuel oil. It is presumptuous and dangerous for us to state the future military safety of the country on the chance that fuel oil for boilers will always be the prime necessity."

The testimony as developed by Senator Walsh of Montana and Senator Jones of New Mexico has greatly strengthened the people's case against the looting of this oil reserve and the undermining of the national defense.

ROBS CALOMEL OF NAUSEA AND DANGER

MEDICINAL VIRTUES RETAINED AND IMPROVED—DANGEROUS AND SICKENING QUALITIES REMOVED PERFECTED TABLET CALLED "CALOTABS"

The latest triumph of modern science is a "de-nauseated" calomel tablet known to the drug trade as "calotabs." Calomel, the most generally useful of all medicines thus enters upon a wider field of popularity, purified and refined from those objectionable qualities which have heretofore limited its use.

In biliousness, constipation, headaches and indigestion, and in a great variety of liver, stomach and kidney troubles calomel was the most successful remedy, but its use was often neglected on account of its sickening qualities. Now it is the easiest and most pleasant of medicines to take. One Calotab at bedtime with a swallow of water, that's all. No taste, no griping, no nausea, no salts. A cool night's sleep and the next morning you are feeling fine, with a clean liver, a purified system and a big appetite. Eat what you please. No danger.

Calotabs are sold only in original sealed packages, pure 35 cents for the large family package; ten cents for the small, trial size. Your druggist is authorized to refund the price as a guarantee that you will be thoroughly delighted with Calotabs. (H)-tf

If Back Hurts Begin on Salts

Flush Your Kidneys Occasionally by Drinking Quarts of Good Water

No man or woman can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Too much rich food creates acids which clog the kidney pores so that they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood. Then you get sick. Rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders often come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage, or attended by a sensation of scalding, begin to drink salt water in quantities; also get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine.

This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to help neutralize the acids in the system so they no longer cause irritation, thus often relieving bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and can not injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, which everyone can take now and then to help keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby often preventing serious kidney complications. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.

SAGE TEA KEEPS YOUR HAIR DARK

When Mixed With Sulphur It Brings Back Its Beautiful Lustre At Once

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks streaked, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred-fold. Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the recipe at home or get from any drug store a bottle of "Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which is merely the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully, besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.

The Houston District Raises Over $300,000

The largest Sunday school attendance, the largest membership, the largest number in Epworth Leagues and the biggest financial record in the history of the district are some of the things in the report that Dr. George Waverly Davis, presiding elder of the Houston district, will bring to Cameron this week to the annual session of the Texas Methodist conference.

Dr. Davis is retiring after four years as presiding elder in the Houston district, and in many respects the past year has been the best of his four. The contributions to all purposes by the churches in the district for the past year, though accurate figures have not yet been compiled, are expected to exceed $300,000, which represents an increase of about $100,000 over the record of the first year he had charge.

The church membership will run between 13,000 and 14,000 compared with 8361 four years ago when he took charge. There are now practically as many Methodists in the city of Houston alone as there were in the entire district four years ago. In his administration Dr. Davis has stressed the evangelistic note and has co-operated with the pastors in a program of a revival in each church each year.

The Sunday school enrollment in the district totals 12,500 as compared with 8139 four years ago. A feature of progress in the Sunday school work has been the establishment of a permanent annual training school for officers and teachers of Sunday schools. These schools have been largely attended and have been instrumental in training a highly efficient corps of Sunday school leaders in the district.

Marked progress has been made in the Epworth League movement. This year's report will show about 1900 members of leagues, compared with 1082 four years ago.

Dr. Davis has shown himself interested in the welfare of the preachers under his jurisdiction, one evidence of which is found in the use of his influence to have ministerial salaries raised. When he came on the district the total salaries of the pastors amounted to $48,580, while during the past year the total paid to preachers in this district was $74,411.

Fourteen new church buildings and Sunday school additions have been projected or completed.

Three churches begun before he came have been completed and occupied, including the West End church, the church at Freeport and St. John's church in Houston. Two other large church projects have been launched. The North Side church, the first unit of which will probably be erected during the coming year, involves an outlay of $100,000 and the Bering Memorial church, plans for which have not yet fully outlined. The First Methodist will erect a new $150,000 Sunday school building next year.

The value of the church's property holdings in the district is placed at $1,755,000. By far the larger part of these holdings are in the city of Houston.

The total value of the church buildings and their sites in the district as a whole is estimated at $1,300,000, those in the city being valued at $1,110,000. Almost half of this is represented in the magnificent First Methodist church, that property, at the corner of Main and Clap, being conservatively valued at $500,000. St. Paul's church, where the morning services will be held, is conservatively valued by real estate men at $300,000 though the books of the church do not show it as being that large.

The parsonages of the district are valued at $115,000, some $75,000 of which is represented in the city of Houston. One of the finest district parsonages to be found in Southern Methodism is owned by the Houston district and occupied by Dr. Davis. Its present value is placed at $20,000 including recent improvements. The First church parsonage is valued at $15,000.

Besides the district parsonage, seven other parsonages have been acquired during the quadrennium. These are at Grace church, Central Park, McAshan, Harrisburg, Sugar Land, and Goose Creek.

What Dr. Davis regards as the outstanding achievement in the district during his term as elder is the organization and successful operation of the board of city missions and church extension. By the time the books close, December 10, it is expected that $10,000 will have been raised by the board, as compared with nothing for this work four years ago. A $30,000 program has been adopted and launched.

Dr. Davis goes to Oaklawn church, Dallas, with an unbroken record of achievement and success in the Texas conference. He is known as a strong and eloquent preacher as well as an executive of unusual ability.

MASS MEETING HELD TO DISCUSS ROAD NEEDS.

A mass meeting of citizens was held in the directors' room of the Thorndale State Bank on Wednesday afternoon to discuss the available ways and means of rebuilding and maintaining our public roads, a subject very timely, it seems to the Champion. The consensus of opinion of those present at the meeting seemed to be that whatever effort was made it should contemplate the rebuilding of the roads in the entire territory of this commissioners precinct, and to do this seemed next to impossible with merely a maintenance tax of only 15c on the hundred dollar valuation of taxable property, as has been suggested. At the present time we have only a 4c tax and it was proposed to raise this to 15c by adding 11c to it by an election for that purpose.

After some discussion it was decided to take no definite action until the County Engineer could be invited to meet with us and also give Commissioner Moore time in which to compile some needed data upon which to act as a basis for laying plans for definite action looking to providing better roads in this precinct. This meeting will probably be held during the present week.—Thorndale Champion.

TURKEY TALK

We strive to give you as nearly as possible information on market conditions as reflected to us thru market papers and Government reports. We do not want to carry to you the feeling that we are always correct but we are in close touch with conditions and can usually foretell the trend of the market.

We predicted in this paper on Oct. 18th that turkeys would sell for Thanksgiving at 18 to 20 cents per lb. which they did. Now we are predicting that Christmas turkeys are going to bring 12 to 14 cents and possibly 10 cents. Market your turkeys gradually. A flooded market on any commodity causes a break and turkeys are no exception to this rule.

Government report shows turkeys on hand in freezers in East:

RED PEPPER FOR COLDS IN CHEST

Ease your tight, aching chest. Stop the pain. Break up the congestion. Feel a bad cold loosen up in just a short time.

Red Pepper Rub is the cold remedy that brings quickest relief. It cannot hurt you and it certainly seems to end the tightness and drive the congestion and soreness right out.

Nothing has such concentrated, penetrating heat as red peppers, and when heat penetrates right down into colds, congestion, aching muscles and sore, stiff joints relief comes at once.

The moment you apply Red Pepper Rub you feel the tingling heat. In three minutes the congested spot is warmed through and through. When you are suffering from a cold, rheumatism, backache, stiff neck or sore muscles, just get a jar of Rowles Red Pepper Rub, made from red peppers, at any drug store. You will have the quickest relief known.

A Tract of Land Without an Abstract Is Like A Cow Without a Brand--

ANYBODY CAN CLAIM IT.

It is by far more important to you to know that the land upon which you live or which you claim, is yours than to know that it will produce cotton or corn.

Sventy-five per cent of the land titles in this, as well as other counties are full of hidden defects, and the only way to find those hidden defects is through reliable abstracts—such as those made in Cameron by the Laurence Abstract Company.

A Laurence abstract is prepared by those who not only know every phase of abstracting, but also stand behind all their work. IT IS THE RECORD OF WHAT YOUR COUNTY SAYS—NOT WHAT WE SAY. Every material part of the instrument is copied verbatim.

Make sure NOW, that the land which you claim, is your own, to have and to hold. Come to us for your abstract. We can save you money.

"Slimy Taste"

"When I feel stupid, get constipated, or bilious, I take a good dose or two of Black-Draught and it sets me straight," writes Mr. George B. Haislep, of R. F. D. 2, Columbia, S. C. "It cleanses the liver and I feel all right, and have not used any other medicine as I do not see the need of it. I am a guard at the State Reformatory, and have been for three or more years. When I first heard of and the good medicine it was, I had been having a tired feeling when I'd get up in the morning. I would be stiff and sore, and had a slimy, bad taste in my mouth, but didn't think so much of it till I began to feel stupid and didn't feel like eating—then I knew I needed medicine. It was then I began Black-Draught, and I felt all made over, ready for any kind of work, ready to eat and sleep. So, for any return of this trouble, I take Black-Draught, and for 25 years it has been my medicine, and I wouldn't be without it at all. My work is constant. I am on my feet a lot. I am out of doors, and fresh air and Black-Draught are all the medicines I need. I recommend it to others for I know it is good."

BLACK-DRAUGHT

HISTORY OF LIFE OF REV. IRA KEY

Rev. Ira F. Key was born at Lingleville, Erath County, Texas. Parents moved to Bronte, in West Texas, when he was four years old. Here he was reared and went away to college. A B. graduate of Southwestern University in 1908. He was licensed to preach in 1904. After leaving college supplied First Church, Brownwood in the absence of the pastor, Rev. S. A. Stell, D. D., from June until conference. Admitted on trial at the Central Texas Conference held in Waco, in the fall of 1908. Appointed to Georgetown Circuit and was transferred from there in February of the following year to Galveston to have charge of some work in East End of Galveston, Old St. James Church. From there he was appointed to Harleton Circuit and stayed one year. He went from there to Alvin and stayed three years, thence to McKee Street Church, Houston. He was later appointed to Conroe where a splendid new church building was erected. From there he went to Woodland Heights Church, Houston, spending one year and from there to Cameron in the fall of 1919. When the good pastor reached Cameron there was then as now lots of good people to preach to, but the old "ramshackle" of a Church was really no fit place in which to preach. He was not long in creating a new Church sentiment with the result that today Cameron has one of the handsomest and best appointed Churches in the Texas Conference. Here is what Ira F. Key, the "live wire" pastor says about it. It was like drawing eye teeth' to get him to say it, but his flock of six hundred or more who dearly love him, will say "Amen" when they read what he says about the new church.

"In the spring of 1920 we launched a building enterprise which in the total amounted to $100,000. By that fall we had broken dirt and the enterprise was well under way. It was then the crash came in the business world. And besides this in the spring of 1921 we had a $1,000,000 compress fire in Cameron which caused a heavy loss on the part of the community. By reason of these things our work was handicapped and after the roof was on the building we stopped work until in the fall of 1921. This was due to the fact that we were not able to make a loan for finishing the work. By early fall we had negotiated a loan sufficient to enable us to complete the church to the point where we could worship in it. It was this same fall however, that the big flood came overnight literally wiping out our big cotton crop and paralyzing business everywhere again. As you will remember this flood literally ruined all this section of the country in the river bottoms. Cotton in the field already picked out was entirely washed away. In spite of all these things in the fall of 1922 the church rallied and carried forward the program to completion and we entered the church in its completed state the first Sunday in March, 1923. We now have the church complete, beside buying a new lot for the parsonage and repairing it at an expense of $5,000. Of the total amount to be invested when conference meets there will be an indebtedness of not more than $20,000, half of which perhaps will be covered in good subscriptions. I will have raised in Cameron in spite of conditions during the four years around $120,000. We have doubled our Sunday School attendance and have added 250 members to the Church.

REV. IRA F. KEY

"The Womans Missionary Society with 70 members has raised above $8,000 during the four years for all purposes. This includes a missionary which the society has taken on in addition to the responsibilities they have borne in connection with the building enterprise."

Bro. Key is closing out his fourth year. His people wish for his return, but whether or not he does will be determined by Bishop Moore. Key is a "doer of things" and it is possible the "all wise and far-seeing church authorities" may have other fields of endeavor that they have him booked for. It is certain there is no place that he could not fill acceptably. He is above the average as a preacher and as a pastor. What more could be desired. Preacher, pastor and builder. Plans for the housing of preachers and delegates have all been worked out and Bro. Key says all who come will be provided for.

CONFERENCE HOST

REV. IRA F. KEY.

Rev. Ira F. Key, pastor of the Methodist church at Cameron, is one of the younger men of the Texas conference who has achieved exceptional success.

A graduate of Southwestern University at Georgetown, he entered the ministry about a dozen years ago, and his rise to prominence has been steady. He built the splendid Methodist church at Conroe, an achievement that attracted much attention at the time, because practically all the material used in the building was produced in Conroe.

Before going to Cameron, he was pastor of Woodland Heights Methodist church in Houston. Previously he had served at old McKee Street church on the North Side. Another former charge was Alvin.

Rev. Mr. Key is completing his fourth year at the Cameron church, the building of which is the greatest achievement of his career. In strong resolutions his board of stewards commended him and his work. It is understood that he is in line for a handsome promotion at this conference.

The ladies of the Cemetery Association feel very grateful for the hearty and cordial support given them at their entertainment Nov. 4th.

The Cameron Orchestra furnished lovely music that was enjoyed by all. The Post Office with Misses Susie Pope and Nattie McCord as managers, assisted by R. D. Brown, was a drawing card.

The Art Gallery under the untiring management of Mrs. Baldwin and Percy McIver was a grand success.

At the well stood Miss Maide Bassett. Few there were who passed by that did not think with the Judge "That a sweeter draught from a fairer hand was never quaffed."

"Our Gypsy, Mrs. E. B. Muse, was all that could be desired.

With such workers as Mesdames Thomas, Cross, M. J. Moore, Ralston, Monroe, Lay and Miss Snoddy, there is no such word as fail.

The people of this community were much grieved recently on account of the death of Dr. McCullough. He was a noble Christian man and his bereaved family have the sympathy of all our people. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Newton and Rev. J. W. Kelly.

ORDER OF SALE.

THE STATE OF TEXAS,
County of Dallas.

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Milam County—GREETING:

Whereas, on the 4th day of September A. D. 1923 in the case of Mrs. Anna B. Haggard, a widow, versus, W. J. Parker and R. H. Vogel, No. 48430-B, the plaintiff, Mrs. Anna B. Haggard, a widow, recovered, in the District Court of Dallas county, 44th Judicial District of Texas, a Judgment against the said defendants, W. J. Parker and R. H. Vogel, jointly and severally for the sum of Eighteen Hundred Nine and No 100 ($1,809.00) Dollars, together with interest thereon from date of judgment, at the rate of eight per cent. per annum, and costs of suit; and whereas, said Judgment is a foreclosure of a mortgage Lien, as it existed on the 1st day of April 1922, against the said defendants, on the following described personal property, to-wit:

One complete rotary rig, at the time of the execution of said mortgage located in Milam county, Texas on what was then known as the W. H. Rowell place, being the same rig which was to be thereafter moved to Rosebud, Texas, and to be located on block one of the Gopher Oil Subdivision of the Mrs. Sue M. Read lands in Milam and Falls county, Texas, containing, among other items the following items constituting said rig.

One Crown Block; One Traveling Block; One Kelly with holes; One National Mud Pump; Two rotary tables; Two complete draw works; One Boiler with all connections; One Alax engine; Three galvanized tanks; Six hundred feet of one and a half inch water line; One wire cable; Fifteen hundred feet of four inch drill stand; One fishtail bit; One pair of tongs; One six inch swedge nipple with about one hundred feet of two inch line; Two galvanized tanks in Rosebud and all oil contained therein; Two pair of Bit Springs; Two mattresses; One coal oil stove; One pap valve; One injector; Two two inch globe valves; One anvil; Two pair of elevators; One elevator chain; One engine chain; Two draw work chains; One pulley for Gin pole; One head timber; One Overshot.

Therefore, you are hereby commanded, that you proceed to seize and sell above described property, as under execution; and that you apply the proceeds thereof to the payment and satisfaction of said sum of Eighteen Hundred Nine and No 100 ($1,809.00) Dollars, together with the interest that may be due thereon from date of judgment at the rate of eight per cent per annum and all costs of suit. And if the said property shall sell for more than sufficient to pay off and satisfy said sums of money, then you are hereby directed to pay over the excess thereof to the defendants, W. J. Parker and R. H. Vogel. But, if said property shall not sell for enough to pay off and satisfy this Judgment or cannot be found, then that you make the said money, or any balance thereof remaining unpaid, out of any other property of the defendants, W. H. Parker and R. H. Vogel, jointly and severally—as in case of ordinary executions and you are further ordered that you put the purchaser of said property under this Order of Sale, in possession of the property described in this Order of Sale within thirty days after date of sale.

Herein fail not, but due return make hereof, showing how you have executed the same within Ninety (90) days from this date.

Given under my hand, and Seal of the District Court of Dallas County, at my office in the City of Dallas, this 26th day of September A. D. 1923.

ATTEST:

JOHN H. CULLOM,
Clerk District Court, Dallas County.

RAYMOND MCGINNIS BITTEN BY RATTLE SNAKE.

Raymond McKinnis, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. McKinnis living a few miles south of Taylor and a nephew of our townman, I. G. McKinnis, was bitten by a rattle snake last week while playing near his home. The boy, 14 years of age, located a rattler in a hole and reached his arm in the hole to capture the snake and was bitten by the reptile. A cord was tightly tied around his arm to prevent the spread of the poison and he was rushed to a hospital at Taylor for treatment. Report from Taylor the first of this week stated that gangrene had set in and a desperate effort was being made to avoid the necessity of amputating the arm.—Thorndale Champion.

PARENT'S HOPE IS IN THE FUTURE OF THEIR CHILDREN.

He would be an unnatural parent who did not wish to give his boy or girl the best educational advantages in his power; a very thoughtless parent who would send him to the first school that mailed you a catalogue and an unpardonable parent who entered him into a school without first investigating its location, equipment, character of student body, faculty, system of discipline, and above all, the moral surroundings. Yours is the duty of investigation, comparison and ultimate decision. By comparison, you will find the Tyler Commercial College the best as well as the most economical school to be found. Board, room and living expenses are from one-half to two-thirds cheaper in Tyler than in other places. The time required to complete the course is less than half the time required in other schools. Therefore the savings in time and the cost of board should cause you to investigate thoroughly before deciding to send your boy or girl elsewhere.

Your boy or girl is the hope of your life. In him or her is centered your most cherished ambitions. His or her worth to you cannot be measured by dollars and cents but must be measured by the training received in the home and in the school.

The 208 page catalogue of Tyler Commercial College will tell you of American's largest business training school, which has over 40,000 students from 39 different states and 7 foreign countries. It gives the endorsements of the best business men, ministers, lawyers and bankers. It gives the experience of many young people who came to them with limited means and who achieved success after a short time spent in their school.

We know you are interested. Ask them to furnish you proof. Their large illustrated catalogue is free.
